Bethlehem Workers Vote to End Strike

3,000 CHEER IN APPROVING SETTLEMENT

Ballot Unanimously To Wind Up Conflict Which Began Wednesday Night.

THREE-POINT PROPOSAL

Agreement Based on Election To Be Sponsored By Labor Board.

(By United Press)

LACKAWANNA, N. Y.—More than 3,000 cheering CIO workers today voted unanimously to accept a three-point strike settlement proposal and return to their jobs at the Bethlehem Steel corporation's Lackawanna plant. Their vote ended a strike which began Wednesday night.

Van A. Bittner, Steel Workers Organizing Committee regional director, told the workers "you have won one of labor's greatest victories in this country."

The vote was taken after Bittner announced from the platform in the union hall that the Bethlehem Steel management had agreed that:

"First—every man returns to his job with full seniority.

"Second—the company will sit at a conference table with the union in the immediate future and begin negotiations on our various grievances.

"And third—within 30 days a National Relations Labor Board election will be held and if we win it the company will begin bargaining with the SWOC as your agent."

Settlement of the Lackawanna dispute ended possibility of a general walkout at all Bethlehem plants which would have tied up approximately $1,500,000,000 in national defense production. SWOC workers at other plants including Pottstown, Pa., Bethlehem, Pa., and Sparrows Point, Md., had informed local workers that they were "in full support of their fight and were ready to make any response."

Operations at the local plant were expected to regain full momentum tomorrow when the strikers report back for duty.

Auto Club Ready To Start Sale of Plates Tomorrow

The Richland County Auto club has prepared for the opening of the sale of license plates tomorrow by supplementing its regular force of three to a total of six, according to Frank Beverstock, secretary.

In view of the expected rush for tags, the Automobile club will be open from 8:30 a. m. until 4 p. m. every Saturday throughout the month of March, Beverstock announced. Deadline for tags is April 1.

A total of 12,467 pairs of passenger license plates are ready to go on sale in Mansfield, Beverstock said.

Passenger license plates through the series VX, VY, and VZ will be on sale throughout the week. When the V series have been sold the numbers will advance to the WA and WB series.

In the Mansfield district, a total of 43 deputy registrars will start sales tomorrow. The Mansfield district embraces Richland, Ashland, and parts of Crawford, Wayne, Holmes, Huron, Knox, and Morrow counties.

Get Reserved Seats For Benefit Show

Reserved tickets for Monday night's British relief fund benefit amateur boxing show at the armory are going rapidly, and fans who expect to occupy ringside seats were advised today to hurry to the nearest place where tickets are on sale.

Ringside tickets at 75 cents and $1 may be obtained at: Smokehouse, Saratoga, Tawse's, Central Drug, Ohio Brass, Westinghouse, Mansfield Tire, Empire Steel, Hunt's News, City News, Corner Lunch, and East Side Nite club.

Ten bouts are on the program, topped by a pair of five-rounders.

10,641 Dials Installed on City Phones

Telephone Company Says Services to Start In 60 or 90 Days.

With more than 80 per cent of subscriber stations already equipped with dials, Mansfield Telephone company officials today predicted that new automatic dial service would go into operation in Mansfield "within the next 60 to 90 days."

LeRoy Wittemire, general manager of the company, said today that 10,641 telephones of the 13,141 in Mansfield had already been equipped with dials and were ready for operation. The company expects to have the other 2,000 phones ready by April 1.

"We have the major portion of the dials installed," Wittemire said. "Only installation of central office switching equipment is to be finished and that part of the job will be done, we anticipate, within another 60 days."

The cut-over to dial service will affect only telephones in Mansfield. Suburban exchanges were cut-over to dial service last year as preliminary to changing over the entire Mansfield area.

Meanwhile, it was announced by the company that approximately 15,600 new telephone directories will be distributed to subscribers April 1.

The new books, now in the hands of a printing firm, will be new standard city size and will list, both old and new dial exchange numbers, Wittemire explained.

The new dial numbers, it was explained, will consist of five digits only and will have no exchange prefix.

The new directory instead of listing suburban subscribers under separate exchange listings will also be included in the same section with Mansfield listings.

Practically all downtown offices have been equipped with dial telephones and workmen this week were finishing up the change of instruments in the residential districts.

Where dial equipped instruments have been installed for some time, company workmen are removing the covers on the dials and placing a small yellow tag on the dial.

The tag warns users that when they hear the dial tone to dial the number shown in the new directory. Whittemire says the tags are preliminary to the cut-over and subsequent use of dials.

OFF FOR CAMP

18 More From County Leave For Army Training.

Eighteen Richland county youths left by bus at 7 a. m. today for Ft. Hayes, Columbus, to fill the county's quota in the fourth call for men for military training.

In Mansfield, 41 prospective selectees were called to the Armory for physical examinations to make a total of 82 examined this week in the army's quest for physically sound trainees.

The selectees who left today for the Ft. Hayes induction station made a total of 43 who have left the county this month.

The rate of induction is expected to be stepped up approximately 150 per month during March and April as camp facilities for more men are available.

CREATE UPROAR

But Police Get 'Sit-Down' Mothers From Senate.

WASHINGTON —(NS)— Creating an uproar in the senate office building, Capitol police today broke up a sit-down strike of mothers opposing President Roosevelt's lease-lend bill in front of the office of Sen. Carter Glass (D) Va.

One woman fainted as the group shoved and pulled against Capitol police. The police arrested Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling, head of the group, which is known as the Mothers Crusaders Against H. R. 1776.

CONSULATES CLOSED

ROME — (NS) — The United States consulates at Naples and Palermo were closed today and the personnel transferred temporarily to the consulate in Rome. There was no immediate explanation.

Settlement Ends Steel Strike Disorders

DEATH CLOSES EXILE OF KING

Alfonso, Ex-Ruler of Spain, Dies Sitting In Chair In Rome Hotel.

(By Associated Press)

ROME—Alfonso XIII, 54-year-old former monarch of Spain, died at 11:50 a. m. (4:50 a. m., E. S. T.) today in the hotel room which had been his home in exile for a decade.

He suffered a series of heart attacks beginning Feb. 13 and had been sitting in a chair for the last seven days, too weak to be placed in bed.

At his side when he died were his queen, Victoria, from whom he had been estranged for many years; his son and designated heir to the Spanish throne, Don Juan,

LEAPS, FLEES

Taxi Driver Escapes While Being Questioned by Police.

SPRINGFIELD —(NS)— Police today sought Orville L. Dodson, 35, a taxi driver who leaped down a flight of stairs in police headquarters and escaped after being questioned in an accident involving his car and a police cruiser.

Dodson had been charged with reckless driving in a crash in which Sergt. Howard Roush and Patrolman John Kellis were injured.

ROUGH ROAD

Hitch-Hiker Gets Slugged And Robbed of Last $10.

WICHITA, Kan. —(AP)— James Pomoroy, 18, of Duqoin, Kas., says hitchhiking is too rough.

Trying to save his last $10, he waved down a motorist. A second man in the car slugged Pomoroy with a blunt instrument, took his $10 and left him unconscious, at the roadside.

HALTS TRAINS

Truck Upsets While Going Across Erie Tracks.

Freight and passenger service over the Erie railroad was delayed for more than an hour at noon today when an interstate freight truck jackknifed on the North Main street crossing blocking the tracks.

Police said the accident occurred when the vehicle rolled over on its side as the heavy outfit went over a hump at the crossing. The driver of the truck, not immediately identified, was uninjured, officers said.

Erie officials halted four trains, including a New York-Chicago passenger train, until the vehicle was righted and towed away.

They said two eastbound freight trains were held up at Bowman street and that a freight train and the westbound passenger were flagged down at Longview avenue.

TAX COLLECTION RECORD LOOMS

$330,000, More Than Half of Charge, Already Paid In, Treasurer Says.

Boosted by heavy tax payments in the last two days by railroads and large industrial firms, Richland county real estate tax receipts today climbed to more than $330,000, more than half of the amount due for the first half of the year.

Collections since Tuesday have amounted to nearly $82,000 and receipts by 10 a. m. today totaled approximately

REJECTIONS CUT BY SUPERVISION

CLEVELAND — (NS) — Stricter supervision of draft board doctors today was held responsible for rejections at army inducting station being cut from nearly 20 per cent to 10.8 per cent, it was revealed by Capt. T. W. Nowak, chief of the central armory medical staff.

Dr. Nowak also stated the army has practically decided to accept 10 per cent rejection of draftees as normal, after results soared far above their original estimates of 2 or 3 per cent.

ASSERTS AID BILL STRIPS U. S. DEFENSES

Wheeler Lashes Proposal as Invitation For President to Declare War.

ROOSEVELT CONFIDENT

Chief Executive Says Program Involves Safety of All Democracy in Peril.

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON — Montana's Burton K. Wheeler, implacable foe of the British aid bill, denounced it unsparingly today as legislation which would "strip us of our defenses, invite the chief executive to declare war, and create a dictatorship."

It was a hammer-and-tongs attack, with barbed flings at the president, at Wendell L. Willkie, "international bankers," "court satellities," and "nameless ghost-writers" whom he aligned behind the bill.

Senator Wheeler, a Democrat, omitted any reference to President Roosevelt's assertion of last night that the administration "confidently" anticipated early enactment of the lease-lend program as an "all important factor" in hemisphere defenses.

Mr. Roosevelt, in a radio broadcast to the motion picture awards dinner at Hollywood, declared that the United States' defense "involves the defense of all the democracies of all the Americas—and therefore in fact, it involves the future of democracy wherever it is imperiled by force or terror."

Wheeler, in the four-hour address he prepared for the senate floor, sharply disputed claims the bill would help further the interests of national defense.

The opposition, he asserted, was speaking "for the overwhelming majority of Americans," who demand to be told "whether the forgotten man of 1932 is destined to be the unknown soldier of 1942."

Should the bill become law, said he, the constitutional power of congress to make war would be made a "tragic joke."

As the Montanan analyzed the legislation, it would empower the president to aid any country he wished, even Latin American nations in their continental con-

FREE SOLDIERS

Police Told To Release Pair Who Overstayed Leaves.

After spending 36 hours in city jail, two Richland county men, away without leave from Camp Shelby were on their way back to Mississippi today to face an extended term of K. P. duty. Both were former members of Battery D.

The pair picked up here at the request of military authorities, who said they had been granted a leave of absence and failed to return, were released this morning.

Police Chief Meade K. Bates said Steve Moritz, 464 Daisy street and Bayne E. Baker, Shelby, R. D. 1, were released at the request of Capt. Harry P. Snyder of Battery D, who had ordered their arrest.

Bates said a telegram from Snyder this morning commanded the pair to return to the camp. The youths told police they were "tired" of doing kitchen police duty and had decided to extend their vacation here.

Nazis Report 146,000 Tons Sunk In 2 Days

Britain Seen Ready to Force German Hand In Balkans; Japan Threatens As French Prepare to Reject Demands on Indo-China.

BULLETIN

VICHY, France—(AP)—Unconfirmed but creditable reports that Germany is removing the French population from the English channel coast were taken by some French observers today as indications of final preparations for attack on the British Isles.

(By Associated Press)

On the eve of Adolf Hitler's threat of a vast new U-boat offensive, beginning in March, the Germans said today that Nazi airplanes had sunk or damaged 28 ships totalling 164,000 tons in the past two days.

"It will be a little more lively next week," Nazi quarters in Berlin declared.

In addition to the aerial toll, the German high command said 22,000 tons had been sent to the bottom by a Nazi submarine.

In the Far East, the situation appeared headed for a grave turn as the Japanese government gave France until 10 a. m. (EST) to accept a "final" Japanese-dictated settlement of the conflict between French Indo-China and Thailand.

Japan has threatened "forceful action" unless France's Far East colony yields to her ultimatum.

The crisis was pointed by Japan's Emperor Hirohito receiving his war minister in audience—often a prelude to important Japanese military action.

Dispatches from Vichy, and Saigon, Indo-China, indicated the French would refuse to accept the settlement—said to entail transfers of large slices of Indo-China territory to Thailand—and military preparations for defense of the rich Asiatic colony were reported under way.

Significantly, Japan took steps to remove her nationals from Indo-China.

Two hundred Japanese in Saigon were ready to board a Japanese cruiser at a moment's notice and several Japanese families residing at Pnom-Penh, in Cambodia province, also arrived at Saigon prepared to leave. Hundreds of Chinese left Saigon on small ships.

A Japanese cabinet spokesman said the Japanese-fixed truce between Thailand and Indo-China would run until its stated expiration time, noon March 7, but Japan made it clear that she intended to step forcefully into the picture if France rejected her ultimatum.

A Singapore report by the British news agency, Reuters, said the eastern approaches to Singapore harbor and the roads would be closed to shipping by mines after March 3, indicating that existing

BULGARIA READY TO JOIN AXIS

Berlin Hears Treaty Will Be Signed Tomorrow; Reports Go Unconfirmed.

(By International News Service)

BERLIN—Strong reports that Bulgaria tomorrow will sign a treaty placing her on the side of the Rome-Berlin Axis were heard in Berlin today.

There was no official confirmation. Official German quarters refused to discuss the reports at all.

But seasoned correspondents recalled that the reich invariably has followed a policy of saying little or nothing about such momentous events until they have occurred.

(Editor's note: George Rendel, British minister to Sofia, has pointedly warned of "consequences" if Bulgaria joins the Axis camp and lays herself open as a potential theater of war.)

Well-informed quarters in Berlin expressed keen interest in dispatches from Budapest which quoted the authoritative Hungarian newspaper Pester Lloyd as stating Bulgaria would sign a three-point pact at Vienna tomorrow.

From this it was inferred that Bulgarian Premier Bogdan Filoff and Foreign Minister Ivan Popoff planned still another visit to German territory. The last time Filoff left Bulgaria it was said to be for a rest cure. He returned to Sofia only a short time ago.

If he is coming to Vienna tomorrow, it was pointed out, it can only be for official reasons.

Masanori Oshima, new Japanese ambassador to Germany, is now at Berchtesgaden and is due to visit Vienna tomorrow. Thus the setting is perfect for some new demonstration of Axis solidarity.

Even neutral observers in Berlin conceded that Bulgarian adherence to the tri-partite pact at this particular moment of Balkan uneasiness would be a most effective counter-stroke to British diplomatic activities in Turkey.

DENIES OUSTER

Dietrich Declines To Act In Case Of Teacher Accused in Death.

COLUMBUS—(AP)—E. N. Dietrich, state director of education, informed 11 residents of Blue Creek school district in Adams county today he lacked authority to remove teacher Orva May because of his second degree manslaughter conviction in the traffic death of a highway patrolman.

Dietrich informed residents that if formal charges challenging May's fitness as a teacher were filed a hearing would be held to determine whether May's teaching certificate should be revoked.

HEIR FOUND DEAD

LONDON — (AP) — Lieutenant Charles Standish Vereker, 29, only son and heir to Lord Gort, former commander of the British expeditionary force on the continent, was found dead yesterday in a village in southern England with a service pistol in his hand, it was disclosed today.

PROBE CRASH

Three Groups Study Disaster; Rickenbacker 'Some Better.'

ATLANTA —(AP)— Three independent groups arranged today to investigate the crash near here of Eastern Air Lines' almost-new, $120,000 air sleeper, which killed seven persons and injured nine, including Eddie Rickenbacker, famed World war pilot and president of the company. The big ship, en route from New York, smashed into a pine woodland about midnight Wednesday as it swung several miles from the airport to come in for a landing.

Rickenbacker, who was last to be pulled from the wreckage when searchers found it at dawn yesterday, was reported "some better" early today. He suffered a re-break of an old hip injury received in his auto racing days. Rickenbacker's physician gave him "better than an even chance" to recover.

The civil aeronautics board began immediately a preliminary investigation. Senator Clark (D-Mo.), head of a special senate committee to investigate plane accidents, announced in Washington that his committee would conduct an inquiry next week.

Ginger Rogers, James Stewart Win Movie 'Oscars'

JAMES STEWART

By HUBBARD KEAVY

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—A nimble footed Charleston dancer turned dramatic and a lanky actor Hollywood once kept buried like a case ace are the new queen and king of the movies.

Ginger Rogers and James Stewart are their names. They are the newest winners of the awards signifying "best" given by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.

Ginger was better than any of her acting sisters in 1940, her fellows believe, because of her portrayal in "Kitty Foyle."

And Stewart impressed them by his work in "The Philadelphia Story."

They, as well as a score of others, were called to the podium of a banquet hall jammed with celebrities and fellow workers last night to be handed statuettes a foot high which have been dubbed "oscars."

"Rebecca" was the year's best motion picture, in the opinion of the academy's 12,000 voters.

The award for the best performance by a supporting actor went to Walter Brennan, who played Judge Bean in "The Westerner." It was old stuff for him—he won in 1936 for "Come and Get It" and in 1938 for "Kentucky."

Jane Darwell was voted the best supporting actress for her char-

Such Interesting People.

(And It's the Little Things That Prove Fascinating.)

CLARK GABLE looks romantic in a vest. Most men just look rural. . . . Mayor LaGuardia was afraid of matches when he was a little boy. Now look at him! . . . Jimmy Dorsey, the bandleader, used to be a cart-coupler in a Shenandoah, Pa., coal mine when he was fourteen. Almost lost an arm at it. . . . Kitty Carlisle sings her best arias in taxicabs.

Eilgallen.

Leif Erickson is a motorcycle fiend. He owns the most beautiful cycle on Broadway and in summertime takes long trips on it. . . . Groucho Marx buys his young son suits and topcoats exactly like his own, so they walk around looking like a big and little edition of the same wardrobe. . . .

Vincent Lopez is fascinated, galvanized, bewitched, bothered and bewildered by sidewalk pitchmen. He can't pass an itinerant hawker without stopping to listen to the ballyhoo.

Billy Conn has the Pittsburgh papers sent to him wherever he goes because he follows the funnies in those gazettes. . . . Duke Ellington can't turn down a shoeshine boy. Sometimes he gets as many as seven shines a day.

Leila Ernst, of "Pal Joey," has a mad hobby—she loves to cut hair. Backstage at the Barrymore, where Gene Kelly and Jack Durant periodically submit to her snippers, they call her "Delilah."

Broadway Sam, that fabulous character of the Main Stem, is a push-over for a mother song. Sometimes he bursts into tears when tenors croon "Mother Machree," and "M is for the Million" sends him sobbing into his beer. So when some of Sam's more calculating confreres are on the verge of making a "touch," they soften him up by exposing him to a dose of this maternal music. . . .

George Jean Nathan never calls a girl on the phone and tries to make a date for that night or the next. With glittering formality, the most plush of the drama critics makes an engagement a matter of at least a week's notice and usually two or three preliminary warning phone calls. . . .

Ethel Merman usually has two sets of lyrics for all her hit tunes. The ones written by Cole Porter for the public and the ones written by Ethel to make her friends giggle.

Betty Allen and Phyllis Brooks are leading the ranks of glamor girls who wear switches, just like grandma did. . . . Larry Hart and Moss Hart have an unofficial the-last-name-is-Hart club into which they are banded at cocktail parties. The motto of the group contributed by Larry, is "Art for Hart's Sake." . . .

Ezra Stone like to ride back and forth on the Staten Island ferry. . . . Charles Boyer refuses to wear a toupe except when he's actually at work on a film.

Irene Castle McLaughlin wears the same dress size she wore when she was dancing with Vernon Castle as a girl, decades ago. . . . George Raft loves red so much that he has his house equipped with red bedspreads, and in night clubs he drinks red concoctions.

Harry Sobol, the demon Broadway press agent, is currently publicizing the Casino Russe, the Russian Tea Room and the Troika, in Washington—all White Russian spots. So the boys at Lindy's are calling him "Prince Sobolensky."

Al Jolson eats his spinach raw. . . . Geraldine Fitzgerald swears she isn't superstitious, but in every dressing room she uses she hangs the dress she wore in her first screen test.

Nick the Greek, the fabulous gambling character, will lose astonishing sums at the gaming tables without taking a deep breath, but he flies into a rage when he thinks he's being "gyped" out of something, large or small.

One night he lost $60,000 in a crap game and then moved out of his hotel the next day because the management, which furnished every guest with a plate of fruit each morning, had left out Nick's banana!

HOLLYWOOD

—By Robbin Coons

Fourth of five articles.

HOLLYWOOD—The war has brought screen stories home to America. Eyes on the domestic market, Hollywood has "discovered" America all over again as a source of screen material. Eyes on its good neighbors in Latin America, it is discovering long overlooked possibilities in that vast region.

The first full year of war brought plenty of American historical films, with accent on the western adventure type—"Santa Fe Trail," "Wyoming," "Virginia City," "Brigham Young, Frontiersman," "The Westerner," "Cherokee Strip," "The Dark Command," to name a few. "The Howards of Virginia" centered on the birth of the union. Generally speaking, it was an "all-American year.

THE cycle of "anti-Nazi" films ran its course in the year. Most of them proved by their reception that the fans wanted to be entertained rather than made indignant. The story of the last World war was repeating itself. Rarely, then, did war films click. "The Big Parade" came seven years after the peace. "All Quiet on the Western Front" came 12 years after. The successful world-aflame films last year emphasized adventure and romance: "Foreign Correspondent," "Arise My Love," "Escape."

Light musicals, as usual in troubled times, rose to the front. Comedy, when good, was never better received.

One of Hollywood's early war fears was that story budgets would have to be cut, that no more would studios vie with each other for the cream of new plays, novels, stories. The spend-to-earn philosophy has upset that fear. Good, even sensational prices are being paid for esteemed properties.

SOME of the prices paid for story properties remind of prewar splurge days: "For Whom the Bell Tolls," $150,000; "Panama Hattie," $150,000; "Arsenic and Old Lace," $175,000; "Hellzapoppin," $200,000; "Tobacco Road," $200,000. "How Green Was My Valley," bought like "Gone With the Wind" before it hit the best-seller class, drew $45,000—same price as Edison Marshall's "Benjamin Blake."

TOMORROW: Garbo's prestige wanes.

Chatter Corner

(Just jottings about people you know, as they're seen here and there about town.)

Former Police Chief William Lauer, able to be out again after a long siege with pneumonia, riding down town with Bill Thull. . . . Jack Zeisel vacationing in Arraijam, Panama, after spending some time seeing Jamaica, Barranquila, and Cartegena, Colombia.

ASKS COUNCIL TO GIVE O.K. ON ONE PATROLMAN

Traffic Committee Chairman Seeks To Pave Way For New Appointment.

City council at its March meeting Tuesday night will be asked to approve legislation authorizing the appointment of an additional patrolman on the police force.

Arthur L. Croak, chairman of council's traffic committee, said today he had requested City Solicitor Marion D. Ward to prepare legislation calling for an appropriation of $1,320 from parking meter funds to meet the salary.

The measure will be prepared as an emergency, Croak said, in order to have the appointment made before Mar. 20 when Lloyd L. Kochenderfer's term expires as collector. The patrolman is expected to take over the collection job.

Kochenderfer was employed for a three-month period at a salary of $60 a month by the city. The balance of his salary, about $85 a month, is paid for servicing the machines by the Michaels Art Bronze company under an agreement with the city by which the company pays the service costs during the nine months the meters are on trial.

Meanwhile, Croak said that no consideration to the installation of additional parking meters would be made by the traffic committee until the present meters are paid for and their purchase authorized by council.

The 416 machines now in operation are on a lease basis and it will be the latter part of August before the trial period expires.

Mayor William J. Locke had asked the traffic committee to recommend the installation of two-hour parking meters on West Second street from South Main to Mulberry street, and on Mulberry street from West Second to West Fourth street.

ILLNESS FATAL

G. G. Grunewald, Ex-Mayor of Perrysville, Dies.

PERRYSVILLE — George G. Grunewald, 76, former mayor of Perrysville, died at his home here Thursday afternoon, following a brief illness. He was born Dec. 16, 1864, near Mifflin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grunewald.

He was a school teacher in Ashland, Richland and Van Wert counties, and attended school at Vermillion Institute at Hayesville, Wittenberg college and Ashland college.

He had resided in Perrysville since 1907, and had been engaged in the lumber business until illness forced him to retire. Mr. Grunewald had served two terms as mayor and was president of the Perrysville board of education for many years. He was a member of the St. Michael's Lutheran church at Mifflin.

Surviving are his widow, Ida Jones Grunewald, two sisters, Mrs. Anna Milligan of Bellville, and Mrs. Lydia Shenberger of Mifflin; five brothers and a sister preceeded him in death.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. at the Perrysville Baptist church in charge of Rev. Thomas Lasley. Burial will be in Greenlawn cemetery. The body will remain at the Byerly funeral home in Lucas until Saturday morning.

EYE REMOVED

SHELBY—Billy Swanger, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Swanger of Vernon Junction, had his eye removed in an operation Thursday at Shelby Memorial hospital.

Billy, who is in the third grade at Will school near Shelby, had his eye injured Sunday while playing at his home. A stick he poked in a moving cream separator flew out and hit his eye.

Westinghouse Gets Contract To Build $16,000,000 Shop For Navy Department.

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON — A contract for the construction of a $16,150,000 ordnance plant at Canton was awarded today by the navy to the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

The plant will be used for the manufacture and assembly of ordnance equipment required by the navy for the defense program. Under the contract, Westinghouse will construct and equip the firm, but it will be owned by the navy, officials said. The fee set for the contractor was $425,000.

The plant is to be constructed on a site in the vicinity of Canton, which was purchased recently by the navy. Eventually the plant is to have a personnel of 2,000.

The plant will manufacture gun mountings, gun slides, turret items, recoil mechanisms, breech housings and blocks, but will not manufacture gun barrels at present.

SEEK LAW TO PREVENT REPEAT OF SCIOTO ELECTION PARADOX

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS—Democratic members of the Ohio senate are seeking legislation which would prevent a duplication of the Scioto county election paradox.

Orin L. Graves, a Republican, was seated as a member of the house of representatives from Scioto, although his Democratic opponent, Miss Gladys E. Davis received 88 more votes than he.

A bill introduced by William M. Boyd, Democratic floor leader in the senate, would require precinct officials to prepare two copies of all poll books and tally sheets. One copy would go to the county election board, as at present, and the other to the secretary of state.

"If there are errors," Senator Boyd said, "the secretary of state will find them and make the needed corrections. Had a double check on the precinct reports been available in the Scioto county matter, I have no doubt but that Miss Davis would now be seated as a house member."

Miss Davis was deprived of 100 votes in a transfer of precinct returns to the county election board records. The house of representatives held that she failed to follow the proper procedure in seeking a correction, and Graves was given the seat.

The Scioto board has promised to correct its records to show Miss Davis received the most votes, but its action is not expected to disturb the house of representatives decision seating Graves.

WIDOW, 65, DIES

Mrs. May Irvin Succumbs at Home In Lucas.

LUCAS — Mrs. May Irvin, 65, life-long resident of Richland county, died early today at her home here following a lingering illness. She was born Sept. 17, 1875, the daughter of Columbus and Emma Yates Arehart. Her husband, N. C. Irvin preceded her in death three years ago.

Surviving are two brothers, John and Lloyd Arehart of Lucas.

Funeral services will be held at the family home here Monday at 2 p. m. in charge of Rev. M. P. Paetznick, pastor of the St. Paul Lutheran church. Burial will be in the Mansfield cemetery. The body will remain at the Byerly funeral home until Saturday afternoon when it will be taken to the family home where friends may call.

RITES SUNDAY

Charles L. Davis Services To Be Held At Ontario Church.

GALION—Funeral services for Charles L. Davis, 69, who died Wednesday evening at his home here, 127 Erie street, will be held Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at the Ontario Community church.

He was born in Morrow county in 1872 and moved to Galion to reside six years ago from Ontario. He was a truant officer of Richland county schools before his retirement.

The body will remain at the family home in Galion until time for the services.

AMATEUR SHOW AT HAYESVILLE

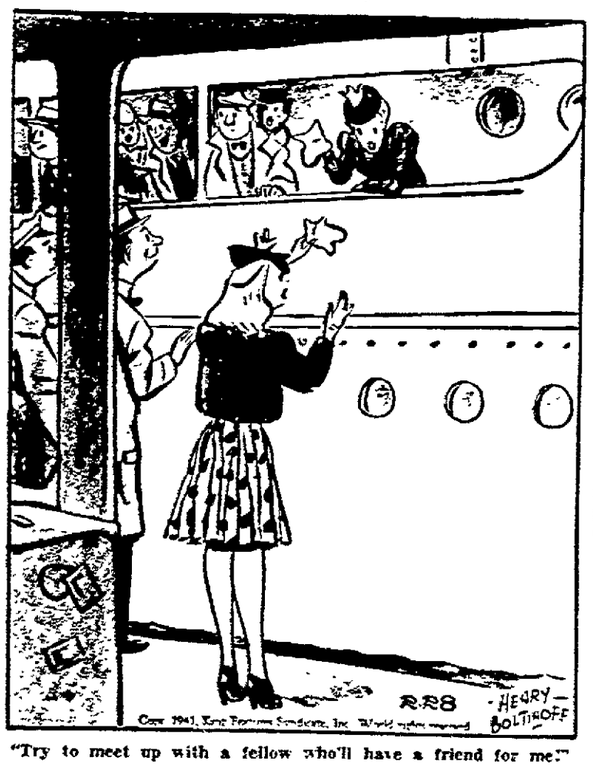
Benefit Performance To Be Held at School Tuesday.

A benefit amateur program for the Hayesville School Athletic association will be held in the school auditorium Tuesday evening according to Earl Metz, superintendent of Hayesville schools.

Pie Plant Pete, from WTAM, Cleveland will conduct the show for local amateurs. Cash awards will be presented to the winners of the contest.

Applause of the audience will determine the prize winners of the contest.

Laff-a-Day



"Try to meet up with a fellow who'll have a friend for me!"

Representative John L. Catlett of Richland county and other G. O. P. members of the Ohio legislature had some fun yesterday at the expense of Representative Evert E. Addison, Franklin county, Republican whip of the house of representatives. A printer's error listed Addison as a Democrat in the legislative roster and members promptly gave him a verbal "hot-foot," an Associated Press dispatch said. Catlett moved that "the member from Franklin county be laid on the table," and Speaker William M. McCulloch pronounced the motion adopted "without objection."

Jottings by the diner-out: The fascination of white-capped heads bobbing around back of the Mansfield-Leland Coffee Shop's steam table and hands popping up with steaming plates. . . . A middle-aged gentleman apologetically explaining why he asked the waitress to wrap up a huge slice of thickly-iced chocolate cake, "my wife never has cake at home and I know she'd like it" . . . The repulsive fascination to onlookers of raw oysters on the half-shell.

In a letter to relatives here, Kenneth Bennett, Mansfield National Guardsman at Camp Shelby, tells of a novel plan the camp officers have for keeping the grounds clear of rubbish. When some one is caught littering the camp grounds with trash he is forced to wear a red keg on his back as punishment. On the keg may be such statements as "I threw trash on the ground," or "I am it." The man who violated the order must wear the keg until he finds another violator to give it to. There is a bounty on some of the sergeants, Bennett said, and the fellow who can catch them littering the grounds may collect as much as $3 from his grateful camp mates.

Italians and Germans fighting for the British? Maybe it sounds cock-eyed to you but they really will on Monday night at the benefit boxing show. The boxers, Italians, Germans, colored boys and Americans all, are putting on the boxing benefit because they "thought it would be a nice thing to do" for the British War relief. They even made the posters to ballyhoo the show.

"Barney" Pulver, who operates a downtown machine shop, has been troubled by friends who entered the shop and borrowed tools without his knowledge. To forestall these depredations Barney installed mouse traps just inside the small openings used to open the cupboard style tool chests. Any unknowing finger trying to open the doors was more than surprised by the brisk snapping of the mouse trap. Barney reports that he had noticed a decided change in the attitude of borrowers. They all ask him for necessary tools now.

ILLNESS FATAL TO GALION MAN

John Weston Baker, 75, Had Been Ill 3 Years.

GALION—A three year illness ended early today at Galion City hospital in the death of John Weston Baker, 75, Cronenwett road. Mr. Baker was born April 21, 1866.

He is survived by five brothers and one sister, Henry, of California; Edward and Albert, of Washington, D. C.; William, of North Robinson; Charles, of Galion; and Mrs. J. N. Krauter, of Wyckliffe, O.

Funeral services will be held at the Market Street Methodist church, Sunday at 2:30 p. m. Burial will be in Fairview cemetery. The body was removed to the Volk funeral home and will remain there until time of services.

WILLARD — Funeral services will be held at the home Saturday at 1:30 p. m. for Mrs. Cora M. Lydy, 80, Dale avenue, widow of the late Dr. A. R. Lydy, who died Wednesday.

DEPARTMENT HEADS ALERT AFTER CHARGE

Ohio House Hears Accusation Gambling Tolerated In Capital Offices.

(By International News Service)

COLUMBUS—Heads of state departments were on the alert today for evidence that the numbers racket is being openly operated in the state house, as charged by Rep. Albert A. Shilling (D., Stark).

Rep. Shilling startled his colleagues in the week's final session yesterday when he charged on the floor of the house that "numbers" are purchased by state employes during working hours, and that "these gambling practices have continued for such a time as to indicate an indulgence or tolerance" on the part of department heads.

In offering his resolution, requesting Governor Bricker to issue an executive order to suppress all forms of gambling on state property, the Stark county representatives pointed out that the "continuance of these practices in the very seat of government constitutes an inexcusably poor example for the people of the state of Ohio."

The resolution came at the end of a brief week-end session that witnessed the passage of two highway bills by the house. The measures are designed to empower the state highway department and county commissioners to build and maintain roads connecting private property left isolated by relocations with new highways.

Sen. Seibert (R., St. Marys) introduced a bill to place rate changes by telegraph companies under jurisdiction of the PUCO in the same manner as railroad rates are adjusted, and Sen. Jones (R., Middleport) introduced legislation to fix a limit of 15 per cent on cemetery lot sales commissions.

Willis H. Liggitt, Belle Center, senate postmaster for the past two years, resigned to enter the 107th cavalry as a second lieutenant, and was escorted to the speaker's dais and given an ovation. Liggitt is the son of Sen. D. A. Liggitt (R., Belle Center).

The house yesterday adopted a resolution of regret at the death of Adjutant General Gilson D. Light, and Speaker McCulloch appointed the Lucas county delegation to represent the law-makers at the funeral at Toledo Saturday.

Ex-Governor Davey To Leave Hospital And 'Take Rest'

CLEVELAND —(U.P.)— Former Governor Martin L. Davey, recovering from a heart attack suffered Feb. 9, said today he will leave the Cleveland clinic hospital next week for his home in Kent.

"I'm going home to Kent, home to rest," the gray-haired former Democratic governor and congressman remarked. "I must remain in bed for several weeks."

He said he had no plans for future political activity. "My big job is to get well. Then let the future take care of itself," he added.

Seriously ill when he entered the hospital on Feb. 10, Davey is now permitted to see a limited number of visitors daily.

Mrs. Myrna Smith, his secretary now and when he was governor between 1935 and 1939, drives almost daily from Kent to Cleveland to receive instructions on business and political matters.

Butler Trims Bellville In Renewal of Bucket Feud

Sport Podge by REX HESS

And what do you think, neighbor, of the way that little flailin' florist, Paul Carbetta, has been hanging the wreath on those flyweight floogies out in Chicago?

No, you can't properly call 'em floogies, at that. They're all champions in the places they come from, but they've got to come from bigger places than Indianapolis, St. Louis, Detroit and Omaha to catch up with Punchin' Paul.

Mansfield's really got something in that Paul Carbetta. You betta it's gotta.

From the sweet-smelling posy shop
To the sweaty aroma of
Biff and bop
May be quite a hop,
But not
For Paul Carbetta
It's not.
Whoa, stop!

Gather ye posies while ye may, that Paul Carbetta is makin' hay. (Hey, hey, brother, ain't I hot today? No? Well all right.)

No reception was on the book's for Carbetta's return to Mansfield after four straight victories in the Chicago shindy. It seems the Cleveland fight trainers, Jimmy Avon, Johnny Papke, and Charley O'Connell, don't like that sort of thing when they're handling a tournament team.

They registered a mild kick when Paul's Friendly House mates tossed a farewell party for him before he went to the Windy City.

"We want the boys to keep calm and confident," they explained, "and not get over-excited, over-confident, or swell-headed."

To that, Russ Gimbel, the Friendly House maestro, retorts: "Paul's been around long enough not to let that sort of thing go to his head. And, besides, he isn't that kind of a kid!"

So it's back to peddlin' posies in his own quiet way for punchin' Paul. And lady, wouldn't you go for a corsage from this boxing barrage? You would?

* * *

Comes a note from Jessie Rader who says the name of Springfield's high scorer in Monday night's county cage joust is Boleratz, not Poleratz, and she would like to see the error corrected, because:

"You see, Boleratz is my favorite basketball player."

That's jivin,' Jessie! Always back your favorite, as we say at the track, and when the favorite comes home in front, don't hesitate to let the people know you had the winning ticket. Or did you?

Tygers End Schedule At Home

Tangle With McKinley In Grudge Bucket Tilt.

THE big game of Mansfield High's home bucket schedule is on tap tonight at Senior High gym when Coach Vern Hoffman's hoopsters tangle with the once-defeated Canton McKinley Bulldogs.

McKinley, with 18 victories to its credit, and only an upset 23-27 loss to Canton Timken marring its record, is regarded as an outstanding contestant for the state championship.

Although Timken's star player, Hegal, was later declared ineligible because of age just before Timken dropped its only game, an upset at the hands of Loudonville, McKinley is not considering any protest over the Timken game, according to latest advices from Canton.

Coach Hoffman has been a flu victim for several days, and was unable to send his Tyger charges through their final paces yesterday. He reported this morning he was feeling better, and would be on hand to direct the Mansfielders tonight against their old rivals.

Five Tyger seniors make their final bow before the home fans tonight. Two of them, Bruce McGinty, towering centetr, and Dick Burkholder, high-scoring forward, are regulars. The other three, James Emmer, Walter Keeler and Gene Miller, have seen action this winter in substitute roles.

Two other mid-year seniors, Jack Shiplett and Phillips will be back for the first half of next season.

Hoffman today expressed confidence his boys would give the red-hot Bulldogs a battle tonight. "They're playing good ball right now," he declared, "and should be able to make it interesting for McKinley."

In the back of his mind there undoubtedly was the memory of the early season Mansfield-McKinley game at Canton when the Tygers failed to make a bucket in the last half, scoring only three free points in each of the last two quarters. Nothing like that is anticipated tonight.

Harry Mehock's reserve team will be out to repeat their early season victory over the McKinley reserves in the preliminary game at 7 p. m. The Tyger Tots, composed mainly of sophomores, have been playing a snappy brand of ball.

Preparations have been made to take care of the biggest crowd of the season, as Canton expects to send a large throng of boosters to support its fast-stepping quintet. And Mansfielders should want to see the team which is being widely picked for the state championship.

SCHNOZZLE SITS TIGHT ON HOLDOUT BENCH

OAKLAND, Cal.—(AP)—Ernie Lombardi, first string catcher for the world champion Cincinnati Reds, said today he would continue a holdout indefinitely, unperturbed by a threat to find another receiver if he doesn't sign before the season opens.

"If they don't want to pay me more money, they can trade or sell me," Lombardi told interviewers.

Hartley Gets Moving Right

Ohio State Loop Okays Switch To Marion.

TIFFIN—(AP)—The Ohio State league, abandoning the Shaughnessy playoffs, will play a split season in 1941 with the two victors clashing in a seven-game series in September.

The league's 110-game schedule opens May 14 and closes Sept. 1, with the first half ending on July 4th.

At a meeting here last night club owners outlined the schedule and gave Grover Hartley, who holds the Findlay franchise, permission to move his club to Marion if he so desires. Hartley said he would decide after comparing the possibilities of the two cities.

* * *

Fremont, Fostoria, Tiffin, Mansfield and Lima, the defending champions, reported they were ready to start.

The class D loop will be opening its sixth season. The teams will continue to play all games at night, except on Sundays.

Owners voted to hold two all-star games, with American association teams furnishing the opposition.

Under tentative plans the contests will be played at Lima and Mansfield on the same night, with three teams contributing to one all-star squad and the remaining three to the other.

* * *

Selection of a date was held up pending negotiations with association teams.

Several league teams will play pre-season exhibition games against Jamestown, N. Y., of the Pony league.

Mansfield officials announced the scheduling of two pre-season exhibition games with Jamestown, N. Y., of the Pony league, catching the New Yorkers on their way home from training camp at Findlay.

The Mansfield delegation also proposed a 120-game schedule, with 60 games in each half, but was voted down.

GET SORE ARMS

FORT MYERS, Fla. —(AP)— The first sore arms of the Cleveland Indians' training are claimed by Ken Jungels, promising right-hander from Milwaukee of the American Association, and Vern Kohler, a southpaw from Flint of the Michigan State league.

Phil Phlags a Hot One

One-half of the sensational second-base combination brought up from Kansas City by the Yankees, Phil Rizzuto, assumes a typical camp pose by grabbing a hot grounder for the photographer. Other half of the team is Gerald Priddy.

Wittenberg-Wooster Battle Highlights Conference Card

(By Associated Press)

The waning Ohio college basketball season perks up a bit tonight when the battling Lutherans of Wittenberg step on the Wooster Scots' floor with a chance to knock the Scots out of the Ohio conference running.

* * *

A Wooster loss to Wittenberg or to Muskingum March 4 would give the league title to Mt. Union.

Muskingum nosed out Otterbein 45-42 and Denison topped Capital 47-39 in last night's conference frays. It was the Muskies' fifth straight league victory and eight players got into the scoring column. High scoring honors went to Otterbein's Augsperger who had 16 points.

The Denison victory was empty in conference honors since Capital has dropped 11 of 13 loop games.

Miami and Cincinnati closed the season at Oxford, Miami winning 41 to 35 for a 10 won 7 lost record against Cincinnati's six won, 12 lost.

Ohio Wesleyan Journey to Toledo and wrapped up its season with a 55-37 triumph over De Sales. Dick Hartman counted 20 points for the Delaware squad.

A 38-30 Findlay victory over Heidelberg and 39-29 Rio Grande defeat of Tiffin rounded out the night's schedule.

Tonight's schedule: Wittenberg at Wooster, Baldwin-Wallace at Case.

PLAYS LAST GAME

Ed Chatlain, Mansfield three-sport star at Wittenberg, will be playing his last college game in the tilt at Wooster tonight. Chatlain, who had planned to take up coaching after graduation in June, will have to postpone his plans for a year. He was included in the second Mansfield draft call, and was given 6-month deferment to finish college.

Clint Works on New Slider

FORT MYERS, Fla. —(UP)— When a ball player gets past 35 years of age, he usually begins to think about that chicken farm or confectionary store to which he can retire in a few more years.

But not 37-year-old Clint Brown. The veteran relief pitcher acquired during the off-season by the Cleveland Indians revealed today that he is experimenting with a new trick to add to his extensive mound repertoire.

"It isn't exactly a new pitch," he explained. "It's just a slider and pitchers have been throwing it for years. But I've got the hang of it and I expect to use it a lot this year."

The slider, for the benefit of the baseball uninitiated, behaves something like a knuckle ball except that it slides away from a right-handed batter when thrown by a right-handed pitcher.

"You hold the ball much the same as a curve but instead of snapping it off out of the hand you push it out," Clint said. "That's as close as I can describe it."

Brown and Joe Heving are counted upon at this stage of the pre-season to carry the bulk of the Indian relief pitching burden next summer.

Tommy Harmon Booked

Michigan All-American Brings Cagers Here.

Tommy Harmon is coming to town.

The Wolverine wisp of the gridiron, who "went to town" all last fall for Michigan, heads a star-studded quintet of Michigan senior cagers booked today to meet Chuck Chuckovits and his White Huts of Toledo in a basketball display of big names at Senior High gym Tuesday night.

Coming with Harmon will be giant John Townsend, former all-Big Ten center who has been assistant coach of the Michigan varsity quintet since graduating in 1939.

Jim Rae, captain of last year's Michigan bucketball machine, and Herb Brogan, this year's captain, along with Eddie Thomas, teammate of Townsend in 1937-38-39, will form the starting lineup along with Harmon, it was announced today by officials of the City cage league, sponsors of the game.

Harmon apparently is just as elusive on the hardwood as on the gridiron, and only his many speaking engagements kept him from action with this year's Wolverine varsity.

As a sophomore, Tommy led the Michigan quintet in scoring.

Chuck Chuckovits and his Toledo hoopsters need no introduction to Mansfield fans. The former Toledo university high-scoring star, and his mates have appeared here before and have given high-grade exhibitions of the bucket tossing sport.

The Toledo team, with its smoother organization through two seasons of play, probably will be favored to win, but that should not take the edge off the fan-thrill in seeing Harmon, Townsend, Rae and Brogan in action.

A preliminary game will pit the City League All-Stars against the Myers Cleaners of Ashland.

REX BILLIARDS AND CITY NEWS WIN

Rex Billiards cagers edged Sferro's Lunch quintet 25 to 23 and the City News defeated the Boston Grocery team, 34 to 24 as the Senior White league played bucketball at the Friendly House last night.

Contra with the City News was high scorer of the evening with a total of 12.

Big Dave Grubb Leads Bulldogs To Victory

Union Rallies to Edge Lucas Five; Plymouth Wins Easy Tourney Victory Before Big Crowd

By REX HESS, News-Journal Sports Editor.

THE BUTLERS and the Bellvilles came to grips last night but no untoward incident marred their bucketball tete-a-tete as they clashed in the headliner of the Richland county cage joust at the jampacked Mansfield Senior high gym.

Gaining a slight margin in each period, Butler's Bulldogs carried home a 32-21 decision from the renewal of their feud with Bellville's Blue Jays.

Union's Indians were slow in starting their war dance, but finally hit the trail in the last half to overcome a five-point deficit and edge the Lucas Cubs 21-27.

Sandwiched between these games was a 41-27 walk-away staged by Plymouth's Pilgrims over the Drummer Boys of Shiloh who were missing the down-beat.

Big Dave Grubb, the 6-foot, 5-inch center of the Bulldogs, led Butler to victory with his follow-shots as he tapped in eight buckets and added a free throw for 17 points.

* * *

Two and a half minutes went by before either team scored. Grubb broke the ice with a one-hander from the side, and a minute later Palm tallied a free point for Bellville.

Gain Early Lead.

The Bulldogs then piled up an early lead only to see the margin cut to 9-5 at the quarter. The Blue Jays went along point for point during most of the second period, but Grubb ended the session with a pair of tap-in shots, giving Butler an 18-11 lead at the half.

* * *

Both teams hit a snag in the third canto and four minutes elapsed before Frye and Edgerly counted under the hoop for Bellville. Then Grubb found the range again, and Butler chalked up a 5-4 edge for the period, and led at its close, 23-15.

* * *

Red Harris, Butler star who had been out of action two weeks because of illness, entered the tilt at the start of the final stanza, and the game speeded up. Butler gained a 9-6 margin for the period to boost its final victory to 32-21.

Union Rallies.

Lucas looked a sure winner in the opening game of the evening as the Cubs stepped away to a 10-8 lead at the quarter, and increased it to 18-13 at the half.

But the Indians out-stepped them 13-7 in the third heat to take the lead 26-25, and went on to a 31-27 decision as Lucas was held to a pair of free points in the final stanza.

Captain George Curry, stocky little guard, paced the Redskins with 12 points, while the two Bobs, Gilliland and Barger, led the Lucas attack with eight points each.

* * *

Plymouth's 41-27 verdict over Shiloh was too easy for interest. The Pilgrims just declared a day of thanksgiving, and the Drummer Boys supplied the turkey.

Kitchen Stars.

At the quarter, sparked by the brilliant under-basket play of Captain Keith Kitchen, the Pilgrims were out in front 17-9. Subs slowed down the action in the middle heats as Plymouth gained a 7-3 edge in the second quarter, and Shiloh rebounded with a 13-11 margin in the third.

Plymouth led 24-12 at the half and 35-25 at the third quarter. In the closing stanza the Pilgrims chalked up a 6-2 margin.

* * *

Kitchen led the onslaught with 16 points on six buckets and four free tosses while Myers led Shiloh with eight points.

SATURDAY GAMES

Saturday games in the county tournament at Mansfield Senior high gym will be: Union vs. Plymouth at 1:30 p. m. and Butler vs. Madison at 2:30. Consolation finals will start at 8 p. m. and the championship game is booked at 9 o'clock. Both teams in the championship game go to the district tournament at Bascom.

HARVARD, FORDHAM COP LEAGUE GAMES

Harvard cagers edged the Cornell five, 38 to 36 and Fordham defeated Pittsburgh, 32 to 27 in bucketball contests at the Y. M. C. A. last night.

WILL FILL POST

Shelby Mayor Expected To Appoint Junior Fireman.

SHELBY — Appointment of a junior fireman to Shelby fire department is expected to be made by Mayor W. R. Morris at the regular semi-monthly session of city council at city hall.

Following resignation of Harley Evans as a junior fireman earlier this year, the post has been filled by Roy Kibler until an appointment can be made by Mayor Morris.

The appointment must be confirmed by city council members.

Eligible for the post are Kenneth Hageman and Kenneth Koontz, who passed a civil service examination in 1939 for the position. Bert Elliott, who also passed the test and was certified by civil service commission, does not want the job and today had dropped out of the race.

Mayor Morris has been conferring with city councilmen to find out their views on the appointment.

TWO WOMEN ARE HURT IN CRASH WEST OF GALION

Car Skids Into Porch After Collision at Highway Intersection.

GALION—Two women were injured and their cars damaged in a collision just west of Galion at the intersection of Bucyrus-New Winchester roads Thursday afternoon. Icy pavements were blamed for the accident.

Mrs. Kenneth Petri, residing on the New Winchester road, was reported driving west when her car collided with an automobile driven by Mrs. Naomi Riester of Crestline who was driving east toward Galion on the Bucyrus road. The Riester car skidded into the Harry Sherer home at the intersection, damaging the front porch.

Both Mrs. Petri and Mrs. Riester were treated for cuts and bruises by local physicians. Their cars were badly damaged and towed to Galion garages.

ADMITS CAR THEFT

GALION—Francis Cripps, giving his address as Fall River, Mass., pleaded guilty to the theft of a car belonging to Carl Baehr of Galion, in Mayor W. M. King's court, Thursday morning. Cripps was bound over to the Crawford county grand jury under $500 bond.

FUNERAL WILL BE HELD SUNDAY

BUCYRUS — Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon for Cyrus J. Baird, 87, former Liberty township farmer who died Thursday at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Tupps, Kaler avenue, Bucyrus. Private services will be held at the Tupps home and at 2:30 p. m. at the Zion Evangelical church. Rev. E. H. Lewis will officiate and burial will be in the Roop cemetery.

Mr. Baird was a native of Circleville where he was born April 23, 1853.

Two daughters, Mrs. C. C. Crum, Liberty township, and Mrs. T. R. Tupps, and a brother, Frank Baird, of Liberty township, survive. Preceding him in death were three sons, a daughter, three brothers and four sisters.

Road Show Booked For Two Days at Madison Theater

Mansfield theater-goes will have an opportunity to see and hear a stage show that has played the Roxy theater in New York and has toured Europe when "Studio Scandals" appear at the Madison theater, Wednesday and Thursday, March 5 and 6.

Marge Evans, one of the famous "Lucky Girls" heads the cast of 35 performers. Evelyn Willard, called one of the most beautiful showgirls in the nation, is also on the program.

For those who want to experience the thrill of hearing all their favorite bands in one show the Youman Brothers are presented. They have an act, you may have heard on the air, whereby using various musical instruments they are able to imitate the music of America's leading name bands like Artie Shaw, Benny Goodman, Kay Kyser and others.

THEATERS

"Road Show."

The new Hal Roach comedy, "Road Show," playing currently at the Madison theater, tells a fast paced story about two who escape from a swank sanatorium and join fortunes with a carnival company. It's high comedy with plenty of romance amidst the steam calliope, ferris wheel, and merry-go-round of a country carnival. It has a large cast headed by suave Adolphe Menjou and includes John Hubbard, Carole Landis, Patsy Kelly, George E. Stone, Charles Butterworth and other laugh-bringers. "Pastor Hall," the dramatic portrayal of life in Nazi Germany, which stars English actors is the other picture.

More of Andy.

Mickey Rooney as Andy Hardy continues to have his troubles in "Andy Hardy's Private Secretary" playing at the Ohio. This latest Hardy Family picture is proving most popular with high school students who can suffer with him the examination week jitters, work and duties on committees, practicing for graduation. This is the last picture in which Andy will have his jaloppy which he can disassemble with the press of a button, cause the fenders to wave or tires to deflate. He receives a new one as a graduation gift. As his glamorous private secretary, Kathryn Grayson sings several songs.

Music Midst The Sagebrush.

Gene Autrey fans are enjoying a field day at the Ritz where "Ridin' on a Rainbow" is being shown. It is the crooning cowboy's latest picture with numerous melodies, and tangled romance aboard a showboat. "Christmas in July" with Dick Powell and Ellen Drew, gets off to a hilarious and heart-warming start when some practical jokers send Powell a wire announcing that he has won the $25,000 slogan contest he entered. What he does with the money and how he manages to emerge from the embarrassing situation after he spends the money makes a story interesting for the whole family.

Prairie Schooners.

Bringing movie-goers a new western star in the person of Tim Holt, son of famed action player, Jack Holt, "Wagon Train" plays at the Park theater. What with hauling freight in lumbering prairie schooners across sun-baked deserts and hazardous mountains, battling sniping road agents, warding off Indian pillagers and tracking down the man who murdered his father young Holt manages to keep his audiences on the edge of their seats. Martha O'Driscoll is his leading lady. Gloria Jean's personality, performance and amazing soprano voice comprise the major part of "A Little Bit of Heaven," the other picture on the screen.

Expose.

"Gambling on the High Seas" starring Wayne Morris and Jane Wyman opens today at the Majestic. The film is an expose of the ruthless methods of gambling ship operators who, not satisfied with their usual criminal activity, dupe innocent thrill-seekers out of their earnings. Morris is cast as a young newspaperman who wins the love and cooperation of the pretty blond secretary of the gambling czar. Blending red-blooded action with clever comedy and enjoyable romance, Charles Starrett again pleases his audience in "The Pinto Kid" on the same bill.

GETS $50 FINE

Coshocton Motorist Arrested on Two Driving Charges.

Ralph Harpster, 29, Coshocton R. D. 1, was fined $50 and costs yesterday by Justice of the Peace T. F. Taylor, Ontario, on a charge of operating an automobile with license plates which had been issued to another machine, and operating a car without an operator's license.

Harpster was arrested by state highway patrolmen on Route 30.

Farm and Land for Sale

150 ACRE STOCK FARM

VERY SCENIC LOCATION, 6 miles south on the old South Main street road, known as the Varney farm or the old Dill farm. Ideal for stock and grain; abundance of spring water; good fences; some timber; plenty of fruit; modern 8-room house with furnace, electric, bath, complete water system; practically new bank barn and plenty of other out buildings; 14 acres wheat; 19 acres alfalfa and clover. Mr. Farm Buyer, here is a big opportunity; owner will sacrifice, including all stock and chattels consisting of 2 good teams, 16 head cattle, 2 brood sows, complete line of farm machinery, plenty of corn, oats and hay. And if you have desirable city property in good location, the owner will consider an exchange either with the stock and chattels or with the farm alone. If you want to go on a farm, here is your chance. For price and terms and further information C. Connor personally.

T-B PIGS TAKEN

NEW ORLEANS—(NS)—The thief who stole the five guinea pigs from Touro Infirmary's experimental building will probably get his just desserts or more—in this case a serious malady—despite a personal warning published by the hospital doctors.

It isn't the pigs, but the germs the doctors don't want carried around.

"These guinea pigs are inoculated with tuberculosis germs and persons holding them will be exposed to the disease," the hospital superintendent said.

STOCKS FAIL IN TRY FOR RALLY ON MART TODAY

Retail Spending Survey Gives Some Comfort as Banks Record Loan Drop.

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK—Stocks tried for a modest rally in today's market but most failed to pick up much of a come-back stride.

Among resistant issues were Bethlehem Steel, Youngstown Sheet and General Motors, General Electric, Du Pont, N. Y. Central, Pennsylvania and Texas Corp.

Inclined to lag were U. S. Steel, Montgomery Ward and International Harvester.

A grain of comfort was found in the Dun & Bradstreet survey disclosing retail spending throughout the nation this week continued to climb. The agency estimated volume ranged from 9 to 12 per cent above the corresponding period a year ago.

Not so pleasing was the statement of New York City reserve member banks revealing a drop of $13,000,000 in commercial, industrial and agricultural loans during the week concluded Wednesday.

NAZIS REPORT 146,000 TONS SUNK IN 2 DAYS

Vital diplomatic maneuverings held the spotlight in the Balkans, too.

Britons interpreted their government's warning to Bulgaria yesterday to avoid any act which might lead to a diplomatic break as an effort to force Germany's hand and disclose whether the Nazis meant to fight in the Balkans or are merely throwing up a smokescreen to veil an attempted invasion of England.

The British minister in Bulgaria, George W. Rendel, said the "forerunners" of a German invasion of Bulgaria already were present by "thousands" and hinted at an imminent break between Britain and Bulgaria.

The British hailed yesterday's announcement that "full agreement on all points" had been reached by Britain and Turkey and said this announcement had much to do with Rendel's forceful stand toward Bulgaria.

Turkey is Britain's non-belligerent ally but her position had been questioned in some quarters since she recently signed a friendship pact with Bulgaria.

On the fighting fronts, an entire Italian division was said by the British today to have been shattered in fighting with West African Gold Coast forces on the Juba river in Italian Somaliland.

The Greeks claimed to have inflicted heavy losses on an Italian force "trapped" by Greek fire in Albania.

Bad weather over the English channel kept both British and German air raiders at home overnight.

Abandoning of Africa Colonies Predicted

ROME —(INS)— Italy may abandon Somaliland and Eritrea to advancing British forces and make her stand in the mountain fastnesses of Ethiopia, the Italian press indicated today.

Premier Mussolini's own newspaper, the Popolo D'Italia as the Italian high command of Milan, made this prediction admitted that Mogadiscio, capital of Somaliland, had been evacuated and presumably later occupied by British troops.

The lowlands of Somaliland and Eritrea in East Africa are hardly defendable against modernized attack, Popolo pointed out.

Thus both may be lost by the fortunes of war. But in the mountains of Ethiopia, adequate defenses are possible, Popolo said, and the British drive which thus far has achieved considerable success may be stopped in its tracks.

(Editor's note: British communiques claim steady gains in Ethiopia as well as Somaliland and Eritrea. British East African forces are being aided, it is said, by rebellious Ethiopian patriots flocking to the banner of former Emperor Haile Salassie, who is directing operations of his followers from some unspecified point in the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan.)

MEET TONIGHT

Jameson, Catlett To Confer With C. of C. on Bills.

State Senator Joseph Jameson of Lorain and John L. Catlett, Richland county representative in the general assembly, will meet with Chamber of Commerce officials here tonight to discuss measures pending in the legislature.

John G. Routzon, secretary-manager of the chamber, said the meeting with the organization's committee on state legislation will be held at 6:30 p. m. in the chamber assembly rooms.

"The purpose is to discuss with our legislators in Columbus measures now pending, in order to express to them the views of Mansfield on legislation affecting the community," Routzon stated.

The meeting will be in charge of E. H. Brown, chairman of the chamber's state legislation committee.

GUNMAN ELUDES 15 PURSUERS

Police Seek Bandit Who Robbed Confectionery And Fled.

COLUMBUS—(INS)—A gunman who held up a downtown Columbus confectionery and then eluded 15 pursuers by kidnaping a motorist and forcing him to drive away from the scene was sought by police today.

The gunman entered the confectionery and took $65 from the proprietor, Joe Smith. When his gun discharged accidentally and Smith feigned being shot, the robber fled.

Smith pursued, and was joined by about 15 other persons. The gunman commandeered an auto and escaped.

DIES AT HOME OF DAUGHTER

ASHLAND — Mrs. Anna Eliza Fribley died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Morr two miles west of Jeromesville Wednesday afternoon at the age of 84 years.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Morr and Mrs. Florence Christman of Columbus; five grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Fickes funeral home at Jeromesville at 2:30 p. m. Friday with interment in the Hayesville cemetery.

SAYS AID BILL STRIPS DEFENSE

Wheeler Lashes Proposal as Invitation For President To Declare War.

troversies, "or in their internal revolutions."

Nor was that all. He contended the president would have authority to do any of these things:

"Attempt to set up an NRA of the universe, of a world-wide super-barter system, taking over the surplus farm products of South America.

"Seize German, Italian or Japanese merchant ships in our harbors.

Send American merchant vessels for convoys of either belligerent or American merchant ships."

Wheeler said" the overwhelming majority" of communications he had received from the public were against the bill. The minority favoring it, he continued, revealed that they did so because they did not understand the measure.

Wheeler's address was the first of the two major speeches which he planned for the closing days of the senate's general debate on the legislation. In view of the No. 1 role he has popularly been assigned in fight on the British aid measure, his speeches were regarded as the climax offensive of the opposition's floor battle.

As the senate reached its eleventh day of general debate, administration leaders were arranging for longer sessions next week in hopes of expediting consideration of amendments and then final action.

Senator Connally (D. Tex), one of the strategy board, remarked that "while you can't call all this speechmaking a filibuster, it has some of the earmarks of one."

Wheeler described the address he prepared for today as a legalistic analysis of the measure. He would follow he said with a discussion on the bill's background "and the policy followed of readying the country to accept the present war as our war."

JOHNSON FUNERAL

WILLARD — Funeral services will be held Sunday at the Fink funeral home at 2:30 p. m. for Mrs. Mary Johnson, who died at Daytona Beach, Fla., Tuesday.

Real Film Cinderella Girl

Standing in line in Hollywood for her state unemployment insurance check, Juanita Stark, above, was spotted by a movie agent. In three days, Miss Stark, unemployed, was signed to a contract. Before another week was up, she was given a role in a new picture. She is 20, five feet 4½ inches tall, weighs 107 pounds and is a strawberry blond.

TAX COLLECTION RECORD LOOMS

$330,000, More Than Half of Charge, Already Paid In, Treasurer Says.

$16,000, Treasurer John E. Kolb said. Collections Wednesday totaled $51,800, best for any day since the books opened.

On the basis of returns so far, Kolb predicted the best collection in recent years before the payment period closes March 20.

Listing of personal property for taxation is due to start Saturday, Auditor Norman L Wolfe said. Two additional deputies will go on duty to aid property owners in making out their returns.

Listings must be made by April 1 to escape penalty. Taxes for at least the first half of the year must be paid when the property is listed. It is expected that nearly 5,000 county property owners will file returns during the next month.

While the personal tax payment period will not begin officially until tomorrow, the treasurer has already collected $11,084 on personal property.

Kolb pointed out that public utilities and Mansfield industries are paying their taxes earlier than usual this year, and a number of property owners are paying for the entire year instead of only the first half.

The county tax charge for this payment period is slightly more than $600,000 with the total year's charge amounting to well over $1,000 000 .

DEATH CLAIMS CRESTLINE MAN

William Henry Walter, 76, Dies; Funeral Sunday.

CRESTLINE — A lingering illness ended this morning in the death of William Henry Walter, 76, at his home, 327 North Henry street, Crestline. He was born in Sandusky township, Crawford county, Aug. 7, 1864.

Mr. Walter is survived by his widow, Winona Lauchbaum Walter, two children, Mrs. Gladys Scholles of Crestline; Elmer Walter of Leesburg; and one brother, Lew of Crestline.

The body was removed to the Beck funeral home where services will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. Burial will be in Biddle cemetery.

DEATH CLOSES EXILE OF KING

Alfonso, Ex-Ruler of Spain, Dies Sitting In Chair In Rome Hotel.

another son, Don Jaime; a daughter, Beatrice; three doctors; and a Spanish Jesuit priest, Padre Ulpiano Lopez, who administered the last rites of the Catholic church when death seemed inevitable Feb. 22.

Another daughter, Maria Cristina, was summoned from Turin but was unable to reach Rome. She is expecting a child.

Alfonso was king from his birth, May 17, 1886, and reigned until April 14, 1931—a period marked by turbulence and political unrest which finally broke into civil war in 1936, when Spain was a republic.

Alfonso left Spain April 15, 1931, after signing a manifesto expressing his conclusion that anti-monarchist election results showed he no longer had the love of his people. But in his own estimate he remained king of Spain.

He declared again and again, "I will never abandon my throne." His hope and prediction were that some day he would return.

His final yielding, dated Jan. 15, 1941, was a renunciation of the throne in favor of his third son, Don Juan. The announcement was issued Feb. 13 when he already was under treatment at a Rome hotel for a heart condition.

Alfonso was something of a playboy, with a fondness for dancing, polo, bull-fights, yachting and fast driving.

Tragedy stalked his family.

His eldest son, Alfonso died in Miami in 1938 after an automobile accident. He was a victim of hemophilia, hereditary affliction marked by the failure of blood to coagulate. His youngest son, Prince Gonzalo, bled to death in 1934 after minor injury in an automobile accident in Austria.

His second son, Prince Jaime, was born deaf. Because of this affliction Jaime renounced his rights to the succession.

Beginning at midnight tonight masses will be said every half hour in the tiny private chapel of Alfonso's hotel apartment.

The funeral was arranged to be held in the church of St. Mary of the Angles Monday morning.

Crown Prince Umberto of Italy visited Alfonso's family at the hotel immediately upon learning of the ex-monarch's death and converted the condolences of Italy's king and queen.

Except for an occasional trip to Switzerland Alfonso spent almost his entire life in exile in Rome.

LEAVE ISLAND

LONDON—(AP)—The British announced tonight that their forces which had occupied the Italian Island of Castelrosso in the eastern Mediterranean had been withdrawn "having accomplished their object."

RITES SET FOR C. A. M'CULLOW

Former Greenwich Clothier Succumbs at Norwalk Home.

GREENWICH — Funeral services for Charles A. McCullow, 83, who died early Thursday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. D. L. Webb, Norwalk, will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. The service will be held at the Laible and Brady funeral home in Norwalk in charge of Rev. W. H. Bryenton, pastor of the United Methodist church of Greenwich. Burial will be in Greenlawn cemetery.

The only other survivor besides his daughter, is a brother, William of Greenwich. Mr. McCullow was born in Greenwich and operated a clothing store there for 50 years.

WIFE, 28, DIES

Mrs. Janet Ross Jones Had Been Ill Few Days.

Mrs. Janet Ross Jones, 28, wife of J. Harry Jones, died early Friday at her home three miles southeast of Mansfield in Washington township. She had been ill only a few days.

Born Oct. 29, 1912 near Mansfield, she spent her entire life in this community.

The body was taken to the Wappner funeral home where funeral services will be held at 3:30 p. m. Monday. Rev. H. H. Ford, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, will officiate. Burial will be in the Mansfield cemetery.

Surviving, besides her husband, are a son, Gordon, two weeks old; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Ross of near Mansfield; two sisters, Mrs. Richard Painter and Mrs. Clair Touby, and one brother, P. G. Ross, jr., all of Mansfield or its immediate vicinity.

BURTON PROVES GOOD LISTENER

WASHINGTON — (INS) — Sen. Harold H. Burton (R., Ohio) has become the "No. 1 listener" of the senate.

During the long-lease bill debate, often tedious, most senators stroll in and out of the chamber or stay away the entire day except for answering a quorum call.

But not mild-mannered Burton. He sits through virtually all of it, with his hand cocked to his ear, listening. Often he moves from one side of the chamber to the other in order to hear better.

Second best listener is Sen. Langer (R., N. D.)

acterization of Ma Joad in "The Grapes of Wrath."

The director of "The Grapes," John Ford, won the directorial award. He also won in 1935 for "The Informer."

This, the 13th annual awards party, was highlighted by a radio address by President Roosevelt from the White House directed to the motion picture industry. He said he wanted to place emphasis "on the service you can render in promoting solidarity among all the peoples of the Americas" and thanked the industry for its support of the defense program.

Miss Rogers, who was a song and dance girl during her early movie days, has taken slow but certain steps toward the histrionic heights she reached in "Kitty Foyle." Her real name is Virginia McMath and she was born in Independence, Mo., 30 years ago come next July.

Under contract for months to M. G. M., Stewart wandered around the lot hoping he'd impress some director. He impressed them—but not in the right way.

They thought he was too lanky, that his face was too long, that his lower lip was too prominent. But in one small role he clicked and his personality has been registering since. The ace came up.

STEEL WORKERS OK AGREEMENT

Accept Government Plan, End Three Day Strike at Lackawanna Plant.

Two hours before the strikers were scheduled to vote on the return-to-work plan, John Riffe, assistant to Van A. Riffe said the agreement was reached in a conversation between Bittner and Bethlehem officials.

GROCER DIES

Retired Tiro Merchant Taken By Death at Cleveland.

SHELBY—Thomas J. Ballinger, 73, retired Tiro grocer, died Thursday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Anna Swartzbaugh, in Cleveland following an illness of the past year.

Born April 17, 1868 in Hardin county, Ballinger lived almost all his life in nearby Tiro before moving to Cleveland to make his home last year. He operated a grocery store in Tiro a number of years ago. He was a member of United Brethren church and Odd Fellows lodge.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Swartzbaugh of Cleveland and Mrs. Arsadella Collum of Marion; four sons, William of West Mansfield, Caleb of Marion, Ira of Fostoria and Thomas of Cleveland, also 14 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The body was removed today to the family home in Tiro. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at United Brethren church in Tiro with Rev. Victor Roebuck officiating. Burial will be made in Oakland cemetery, Tiro.

20 NEW BOOKS ON SHELVES OF CITY LIBRARY

'H. M. Pulham, Esquire' Added To Black Collection In Current Week.

John P. Marquand's new novel, "H. M. Pulham, Esquire" has been added this week to the John Baxter Black collection at the Mansfield Public Library. It is the story of a man whose life is shaped by his surroundings in a mold formed by home, school, society, even business influences, smooth-fitting, comfortable—unbreakable. In addition the book abounds with laughter, romance, and a "justice without mercy" drawing of characters who are like people you know. "The Late George Apley" is an earlier book by the same author.

The book is one of 20 new volumes placed on the new book list. Others are:

JENNIFER by Janet Whitney is a romantic, historical novel that is good reading, in spite of a heroine almost too flawless for belief. Jennifer, born in England in 1807, was a youthful member of a secret reform society at the beginning of the industrial revolution. Her support of the oppressed textile workers antagonized the conventional, and when her father was murdered, circumstantial evidence was used to convict her and she was sent to the penal colony in Australia. A scoundrel had married her for her money, but a man who loved her followed her to exile and a new life.

TO SING WITH THE ANGELS by Maurice Hindus is the story of Liptowitse, a village in the heart of Moravia, and of two people, Jozhka Liebergut and Annichka Mrachek. Their love and troubled marriage, their suspicions and desperations, their hopeless efforts to reconcile their waning beliefs, and their ultimate destiny make a moving and powerful novel with the present disaster as background for the action.

OTHER FICTION:

DEATH OF A PEER by Marsh; PRIZE STORIES OF 1940 ed. by Hansen; DEEP GROW THE ROOTS by Tomasi.

Recent non-fiction:

DERSU, THE TRAPPER by V. K. Arseniev, distinguished geographer, ethnographer and geologist, is a narrative of exploration and adventure in Siberia which reads like a great romance, yet every word is true. With Dersu, as guide, the author braved the swamps, mountains, and forests of Ussuria in order that he might complete his study of the land and its people.

A new work by David Hall entitled the RECORD BOOK which is a guide to recommended recorded music of orchestra, chamber ensembles, solo instruments, and the human voice. The recordings of each composition are listed, with catalog number and price. A running text gives brief evaluations. Additional chapters give advice about the practical aspects of record collecting and technical information about phonographs and records.

Lucy Pope Cullin's new book, BEYOND THE SMOKE THAT THUNDERS, is an informal record of her experiences during six years of living in Africa. Her observations on native manners and customs, the life and society in a mining community, and the description of the country she came to love make entertaining reading.

I SAW IT HAPPEN IN NORWAY by Carl Hambro is an account of the invasion of Norway by the Germans, written from first-hand observation by the President of the Norwegian parliament.

Also on this list: NOT ALONE by Sizoo; SKYLARK, Raphaelson: PHILADELPHIA STORY, Barry; THIS IS OUR LAND, Cheney and others; THE ILLINOIS, Gray: PRACTICE OF BOOK SELECTION, Wilson; LITERARY MARKET PLACE Hanrahan; INTRODUCTION TO YOUTH, Harris; ORCHARD'S BAY, Noyes; WHY NOT KNOW FLORIDA, Brieson; GETTING READY TO BE A MOTHER, VanBlarcom.

GETS $37,015 TO PAY RELIEF

County Receives Money From State; It'll Be Used To Retire Bonds.

Richland county's relief areas were due to receive $37,015 in state relief funds today, but County Auditor Norman L. Wolfe said most of the money would be used for old relief bonds and not for current expenses.

He said the county would need approximately $12,000 for a payment on bonds totaling $28,500. After the payment is deducted the rest will be allocated to Mansfield, Shelby and Madison township to apply on their bonds.

Wolfe said each of the areas probably will have a small balance left after their bond payments are made. The balance can be used for current relief expenses.

Under the state law, most of the money could be used for direct relief, the auditor said, but the county relief areas have agreed to spend the funds for bonds unless there is an emergency.

The funds represent state collections of a 1.65 per cent tax on the gross income of public utilities, and earmarked for relief purposes.

Oyster shells, mixed with sand and gravel, have been used to pave streets of Morgan City, La.

STATE OFFICIAL TALKS TO CLUB

Assistant In Securities Department Gives Talk On Frauds.

Speaking before the Kiwanis club at the Mansfield-Leland hotel yesterday, J. P. Martin, first chief assistant in the state securities department related the efforts of the office to apprehend swindlers in a talk "Security Frauds, Old and New."

Martin related how the department wages a constant fight against tricksters who work their rackets upon unsuspecting victims.

Ira Bronson, president of the club, announced that next week's meeting would be held jointly with the Rotary club on Tuesday. Ray Calene was chairman of the meeting.

Mansfield News-Journal

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

MANSFIELD, OHIO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1941.

It may sometimes be wondered just what the GOP Old Guard is guarding.

Sandwiched between two months of 31 days each, February's 28 days have provided weather variety to please all tastes. Now let's see what March has to offer.

Strikes in defense industries probably serve to strengthen Hitler's belief that democracy can't succeed—he has what he regards as a much better way to handle such things.

Support License Law Changes

UNLESS defeated by the state legislature, senate bills now under consideration will greatly increase the effectiveness of the Ohio drivers' license law and materially increase highway safety.

Strengthening of the drivers' license law at this session of the general assembly is being urged by the state association of automobile clubs, supported by many other civic and commercial groups, and public reaction to proposed changes has been favorable throughout the state.

J. Russell Lloyd, chairman of the sub-committee of the governor's Ohio Traffic Safety Council, expressed belief before the senate highways committee that while the present drivers' license law had served a useful purpose in bringing regulation to Ohio, conditions have now reached a point where stricter examination of all new drivers and re-examination of some present drivers is decidedly necessary.

"Traffic problems increase each year," Mr. Lloyd said, "by the licensing of 200,000 new drivers, of whom only 40,000 qualify by examination. Ohio is the only state in the union that does not have a minimum age limit for drivers. Several certificates have been issued to youngsters eleven years of age. We have recommended an age minimum of 15 years for licensed drivers."

Increase in traffic accidents and fatalities, despite greater emphasis on safe driving, serves to support arguments favorable to strengthening the drivers' license law in Ohio and it is hoped that the case for the proponents will be so well presented that legislators will take favorable action in the matter.

Another Bridge To Canada

WORK on the Rainbow bridge between the United States and Canada is progressing. The first piece of steel was recently fitted into place.

This bridge will span the Niagara river a little below the Falls. It takes the place of the old Honeymoon bridge that went down in an ice jam a few years ago, although not on the same site.

One reads in the European news that German soldiers are testing pontoon bridges over the Danube in the Balkan region, while the people who live along that river shudder at the uses they expect such bridges to serve. On the long border between Canada and the United States, a new bridge is built to encourage more travel back and forth between two friendly peoples. There is gratification at both ends because the bridge will provide additional border-crossing facilities.

It's an old story by now, taken for granted in normal times, but considered with fresh interest and thankfulness in the light of events in other parts of the world.

Two Decades of Air Mail Progress

POSTMASTERS at air mail stops from coast to coast the other day sent letters to the postmaster general in Washington to mark the 20th anniversary of night air mail in this country. Capt. Jack Knight, an air line pilot, flew a leg of that first trip in 1921. This year he flew the whole distance from San Francisco to Washington, making the historic stops along the route.

The letters from postmasters, the greetings of airport managers and other officials, and the taking of a few photographs comprised all the special ceremony. Passengers waiting for transport planes in airport waiting rooms didn't even know that something special was going on.

Knight recalled that it took him 15 hours to fly from Cheyenne, Wyo., to Chicago in 1921, in an open cockpit plane through a heavy snow storm. The closed cabins today, well heated and ventilated, with the improved appliances for flying safely through all sorts of weather conditions, form a contrast that the flying public and younger pilots know little about. The men who have come through the period of amazing aviation progress of the last twenty years are better able to realize what has been accomplished and to foresee what may yet come.

The 'Collecting' Instinct

NON-COLLECTORS who have been looking over William Randolph Hearst's vast assemblage of miscellaneous art objects, furnishings, jewels, old shoes and thousands of other things, in baffling variety and without any apparent relationship or plan, conclude that Mr. Hearst must be the greatest hobbyist in the history of civilization.

"Thousands of more or less unrelated objects," says a visitor, seem to have been collected for the mere sake of collection. I have not the collector's instinct and do not understand it. I value things for their beauty or appropriateness to the environment in which they are placed.

"When you see an incredibly munificent private collection such as this, the penalty of being poor doesn't seem so severe. I never felt so little envious in the presence of great treasure."

Such collections had best be given to public museums and arranged in some sort of order, so that interested people could look at them, and either admire them or wonder why anybody should want them, as the case might be. At least, they stir up curiosity, which is better than apathy.

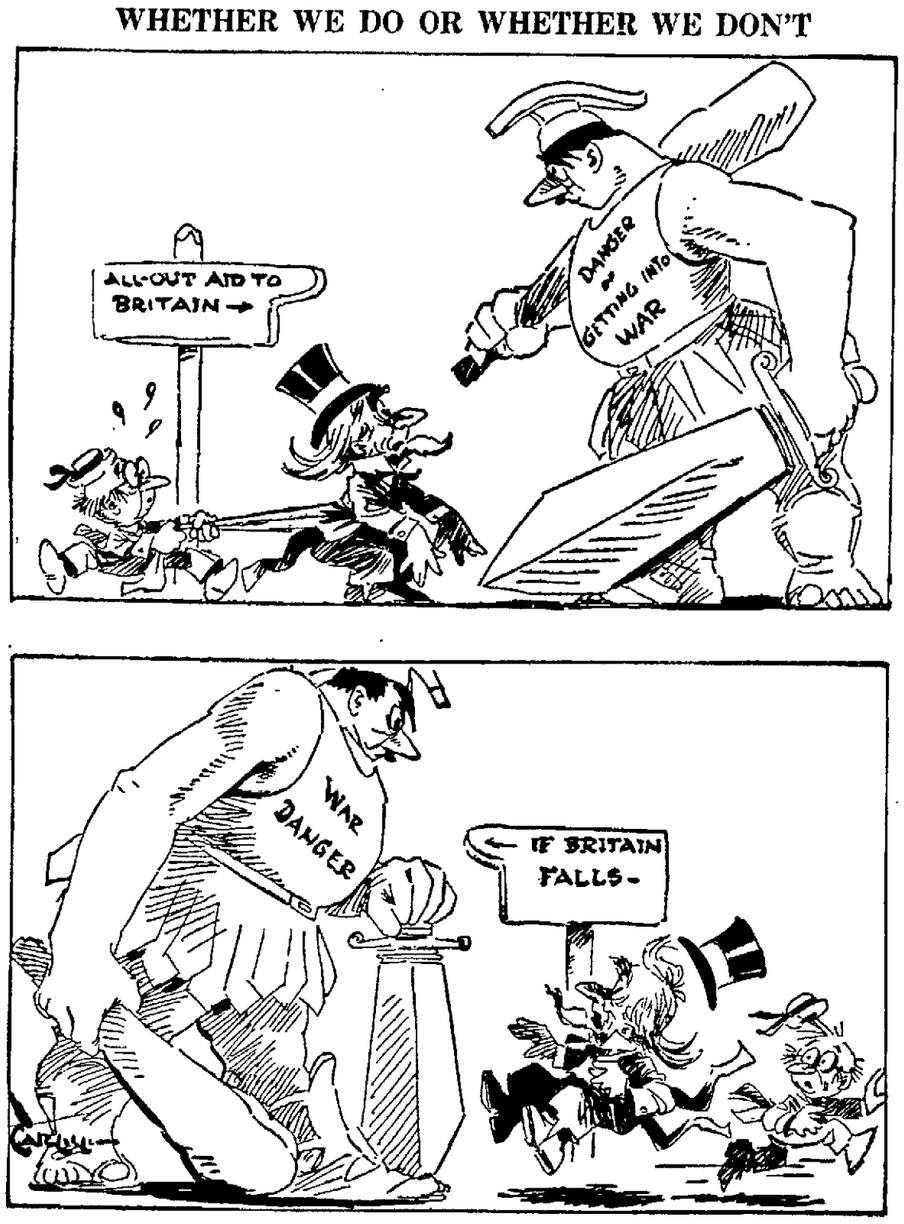
Buffalo Bill's Offspring

ELDERLY men, and probably some young men, too, may be stirred by the news that two great-grandsons of "Buffalo Bill" Cody are serving with the British forces. One of them was wounded lately and is in a Turkish hospital. Could his great-grandfather have imagined that? Or imagined the boy's uniform and weapons, or the reasons for his scouting in that distant region?

But there isn't really anything very strange about those boys fighting away off there, for another country. The world is full of twentieth century Buffalo Bills, many of them small and many grown up, but all dreaming occasionally, at least, of outdoor adventure and defense against savages.

Word comes that to get into Italy now a traveler must have a good reason—and merely wanting to get in should also be explained.

WHETHER WE DO OR WHETHER WE DON'T



Listen World!

Live Positively!

—By ELSIE ROBINSON

I'VE BEEN READING one of the most exciting books I've ever touched, a veritable bomb of a book that shatters and stirs all one's sluggish smugness. The title sounds placid enough, "The World's Great Letters," selected and edited by the famous publisher, M. Lincoln Schuster. But don't be fooled by the beguiling introduction, for these are no ordinary letters.

Here are the outcries of men and women in their peak moments of ecstasy, rage, inspiration and despair. Outcries that span pagan and Christian history . . . that bind young Alexander the Great, defying Darius, to Abraham Lincoln, consoling a mother who had given five sons to her country.

Tear-blotted love letters as passionate as though they had been sent last night, though the hands that wrote them have been dust, some as long as 500 years. Here is not a collection of literary words, here is the naked human heart, throbbing in all its terrible beauty and pain, as plain for the peasant to understand as for the philosopher. No one can scan these letters without being changed forever. And from them all one phrase has gripped me deepest, for it expresses each ardent spirit who wrote:

"LIVE POSITIVELY!"

He had one minute left to live.

Then, like the other young dreamers who had died before him, he would be tied to the execution post . . . blindfolded . . . feel the final crashing blackout of the guns. One last brief gasp of life.

Into that last gasp the great Russian novelist, Dostoevsky, tried to cram his farewell salute to the brother, Mihail, he loved above all others. And wherever there is human fear or despair, or the slow, dry rot of indifference, that letter will burn everlastingly like a flaming, cleansing torch.

"LIVE POSITIVELY!" cried the man who had only known 26 short years of life himself.

"Plan out your life . . . do not waste it. Arrange your destiny! . . . Life is a gift, life is happiness, each minute might have been an age of happiness . . . Life is everywhere, life is ourselves, not in what is outside us . . . To be a man among people and remain a man forever, not to be down-hearted nor to fall in whatever fortunes may befall me—this is life; this is the task of life."

"LIVE POSITIVELY!"

Down through the ages that cry has come, from every valiant heart that ever dared to take his fate into his fighting fists and twist it to an honest purpose.

"LIVE POSITIVELY!"

It does not matter what or where your job may be . . . or what handicap you may have to carry. Such matters are often beyond our human determination. But whatever your chore or position there is one thing you can determine, for your everlasting pride and joy . . . You can determine to "live positively" . . . to "arrange your destiny" . . . to live and love life and "not waste it."

And I'm telling you this, though you may be too young or too raw to realize it yet: "IT'S YOUR OWN DETERMINATION THAT WILL MAKE YOUR LIFE A HEAVEN OR A HELL. For the essence and flavor of life is in ourselves, not outside ourselves."

Life isn't something handed to you on a silver platter. Nor does it depend on your rating in a bank or the social register. Life is as you take it—life is what you make it, whether you're a millionaire or a mucker.

LIVE POSITIVELY! Live with a purpose and a plan, however simple. Believe and bet on yourself and the thing you are doing. Take the job that comes to your hand and like it, and give it all you have. For whatever you are and whatever you do, you'll only GET as much as you GIVE. And if you can't live POSITIVELY . . . you'll never live at all.

Looking Back

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Monday, Feb. 28, 1921.

France demanded forceful military action against Germany to compel indemnity payments.

Edward Schmutzler, jr., bought the Stag hotel, North Main street, from Tracy Charles.

David H. Bright, 356 Marion avenue, was painfully burned when gasoline ignited.

Fred A. Walter, jr., bought the E. B. Wycoff home on Blymyer avenue.

Miss Rhea Frye, 37 Baldwin avenue, received state certificate as registered nurse.

Mrs. M. D. Ward, sr., 72, died.

Nicholas Schaefer, 60, died at his home, 271 Park avenue east.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

Friday, Feb. 28, 1936.

Mansfield Re-Tread Tire company opened a factory and office at 20 West Sixth street.

Miss Jane Weaver returned home after six months in Hollywood, Fla.

Daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harpster, 757 West Fourth street.

Robert Bovard, Woodhill road, was initiated into the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity at Ohio Wesleyan university.

George Balliett and William Ferguson were re-named members of Richland county board of elections.

Saturday, Feb. 29, 1936.

Swollen Blackfork creek halted traffic on Route 30, east of city.

Raymond Hainer, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hainer, received a scholarship to Wooster college.

Plans were completed for the dedication service to be held March 1 for the Apostolic church, 505 North Mulberry street.

Mrs. Louisa Rush, 81, lifelong resident of Richland county, died.

Announcement was made of the marriage of Miss Ethel Hurst of Mansfield and Robert Perfer of Detroit, solemnized Feb. 6, in Detroit.

TODAY IN HISTORY

Baron Delavarr (Thomas West) was appointed governor and captain-general of Virginia on Feb. 28, 1609. He arrived in Jamestown to take over his duties in 1610, but returned to England the following year.

Timely Editorial

Economy Without Example.

Mrs. Roosevelt has just warned that this country must begin to think about doing without things. Last spring at a press conference President Roosevelt invented a word to say that this country did not have to become "discomboomerated" by the defense program. He added that women would not have to begin giving up cosmetics and confections. These viewpoints are in opposite directions.

It is clear that the industrial situation has changed some in eight months. The index of industrial production has moved up to 139 from 115 in that period. Even in a wealthy country such as this, supplies are not unlimited. Maybe the president himself would not use facetious dictional innovations now to discuss conditions.

It should be noted, however, that Mrs. Roosevelt has begun urging citizens to curtail, to economize, to practice thrift. So far the president has said nothing or done nothing about any governmental economics which might serve as a shining example for private conservation.—Toledo Blade.

Words To a Young Daughter

—By HELEN LOOMIS LINHAM

I wish that I could take your willing hand
My dear, and show you paths that some have trod:
And give you vision now to understand
Not all bright ways lead upward to our God;
You are so eager-eyed, and sweet, and fair,
And do not dream of ruggedness at all;
To look at you I think of roses rare,
And lilies growing gracefully and tall;

But oh, a rose might grow most like a weed,
And lilies bend against a too keen breeze;
Yes, even fragile lovely things have need
Of strength, and prayer to stay such things as these;
Oh, no, I would not have you ever fear!
But keep your eyes on only stars, my dear.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

High Prices for British Bases, Much Haggling Over Locations

—By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON—Even among Britain's best friends there is some grumbling over the hard bargaining over land for the erection of U. S. air fields and naval bases in the West Indies.

U. S. naval officers point out that whereas our 50 destroyers were completely equipped—including paper towels, canned goods, typewriters, cigarets laid out in officers' mess rooms—all the United States got was the right to bargain with local West Indian governments and British real estate agents.

Instead of being given British crown lands, the United States has had to buy land from private owners for its new network of island bases. Thus the 125 acres purchased in Bermuda will cost $1,500,000—or $12,000 per acre. In comparison, residential property five miles from the District of Columbia costs only $1,200 an acre.

Even aside from the high prices charged, the mere acquisition of land for U. S. bases has been difficult, particularly in Bermuda and Trinidad, where an appeal finally was made direct to London.

Sports vs. Defense.

IN TRINIDAD, U. S. army and navy officials picked an area of eleven square miles on the Northwest Peninsula as a naval base, and 18 square miles in the center of the island for an air base. But the local government of Trinidad objected, saying the use of this property would "disturb the normal life of the community," by interfering with certain holiday and sports activities.

Replying, the state department hinted that protection of the Western Hemisphere was more important that the playing fields of Trinidad.

The dispute dragged on so long that the governor of Trinidad visited the United States, where he was finally convinced that the army and navy had to have this property, would not take certain swamp areas offered by the Trinidad government. In the end he yielded, but at a cost of $3,000,000. This is what the United States will pay for about 29 square miles of Trinidad soil.

Note—On this will be built an army base costing $51,000,000.

Newfoundland.

NEGOTIATIONS with Bermuda were difficult because the island is small and property values high. Here the United States is building a land plane base, sea plane base, naval base, a garrison area, storage areas for explosives on small islands, and certain improvements to Castle Harbor.

Newfoundland also roused the ire of U. S. naval negotiators by upping prices, forgetting that ten years ago its treasury was empty and had to be taken over by the British government. Here the war department will spend $23,000,000 on buildings and equipment, while the navy will spend $9,425,000 on a naval air station.

At one time during the navy's negotiations over island bases, Admiral Stark got so exasperated that he said in effect: "Do you want our munitions or don't you? If so, cut out the haggling."

Most island questions are now threshed out, but army-navy officers have given interesting ammunition to the congressional committee about to investigate the West Indian deals.

1942 Auto Models?

IT'S SUPPOSED to be a trade secret, but according to OPM Director William S. Knudsen, the motoring public won't be greatly inconvenienced by national defense priorities.

A newsman was quizzing the former General Motors president about the effect of defense contracts on the output of pleasure cars in future years.

"Will auto manufacturers have to repeat 1941 models in 1942?" asked the newsman.

"Maybe," grinned Knudsen. "Just between us, they've done it before, but nobody knew the difference."

King-maker.

NO SECRET to insiders is the fact that the "Supreme Court Justice" referred to by Senator Wheeler as running the war department and the London embassy was Felix Frankfurter.

More of a secret is the fact that Henry L. Stimson was appointed secretary of war at the urging of Justice Frankfurter. A life-long friend, Stimson has taken Frankfurter's advice on many appointments, including that of Judge Robert Patterson, assistant secretary of war.

Frankfurter also tipped the balance in favor of John Winant as American ambassador to London, sometimes dubbed by diplomats "Frankfurter's ambassador to Ernest Bevin."

Winant got acquainted with British labor leaders while serving as head of the International Labor Office in Geneva, and Ernest Bevin, one-time dock-worker, is considered the future hope of the British Labor party. So in the back of New Deal minds is the theory that the next government in England will be Labor and Bevin will head it.

Hillman's Open Shop.

ASSOCIATE OPM Director Sidney Hillman was telling the house judiciary committee about government efforts to settle the Allis-Chalmers strike at Milwaukee, which tied up $45,000,000 worth of crucial defense orders. The question arose as to the exact meaning of "open shop."

"Now, my understanding of an open shop," declared Representative Clarence E. Hancock of New York, "is a place where union and non-union men work together. Is that true?"

"Oh, no, Congressman," corrected labor leader Hillman, "they just work in the same place. They don't work together."

Merry-Go-Round.

THE Post Office Department lost 150 sacks of mail, containing more than 300,000 pieces, through the sinking of British ships last year. . . . When government officials telephone the New York offices of the British Purchasing Commission, the cost to Uncle Sam is only the price of a local call to the British embassy, which has a direct wire to New York and connects up all calls without extra charge. . . . On Capitol Hill, Harold C. Hagen, hustling young secretary of Minnesota's veteran Representative R. T. Buckler, is known as the "unofficial congressman" because he is slated to run for his boss' seat next election with Buckler's blessing. Buckler, the lone remaining Farmer-Laborite in congress, owes his re-election last year largely to Hagen.

Man About Manhattan

—By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Some Broadway producers this season feel that a new menace—an embarrassment of riches—is mitigating against the theater. This is a surprising view, and coming from the producers themselves it may be reckoned a trifle selfish. What they mean is that the big hits on Broadway may not last as long as they deserve or ordinarily would because of the range in shopping values play-goers are enjoying at the moment.

A glance at the theatrical calendar does show that New York has more grade-A atractions than at any time in the last five years. Usually only two or three hits stand out. At this writing there are at least a dozen plays, musical comedies, and dramas playing to capacity audiences.

The fear is that the money will run out before the play-goers have gotten around to all the big hits. In the musical field alone there are 22,000 seats, daily, that sell for $4.40. If you go to a speculator and purchase tickets they cost you $5.17 each. Young people as a rule do not have this sort of money for running in and out of theaters at will.

Some Broadway observers also feel that the weather, flu epidemics, and the draft have worked against the best interests of the box office. The draft may have hurt some, though not as much as you would ordinarily imagine. Most of the draftees, or at least a large proportion of them, are young and do not have the money necessary to go gadding around Broadway theaters. Naturally you can't go to the theater when you are ill, but it has been my experience that cold weather has never kept anyone away from Broadway. When you purchase tickets in advance—as is necessary for the better attractions—you wrap up and go no matter how deep the snow or slippery the sidewalks.

ALMOST everybody is familiar with the famous line on the front of the New York post office, but it seems nobody can quote it correctly. A group of us in Lindy's the other night were trying our hand at it and not a single one of us got the quotation accurately. It goes like this:

"Neither snow, nor rain, nor heat, nor gloom of night stays these couriers from the swift completion of their appointed rounds."

The most frequent error is the omission of "gloom of night," and using the words "appointed tasks" instead of "appointed rounds." Ezra Stone always includes "sleet" with the snow and the rain. He knows he's wrong, he says, but can't help it.

How It Started

—By JEAN NEWTON

Significance of Spilling Salt.

What makes the oceans salty?

It is because, so runs the old tale, into them, from the beginning of the world, have poured the tears of all who have suffered.

This is only one of the many stories about salt which, since time immemorial, has been the focal point of superstition.

Typical is the belief that bad luck is sure to attend the spilling of salt—a conception commonly attributed to the tradition, as portrayed in Leonardo da Vinci's painting of the Last Supper, that Judas, reaching over the table to dip his hand into the dish with Christ, overturned the salt cellar.

The idea probably stems from the early and sacred associations with salt which seem to be universal and which undoubtedly derive from the vital part played by salt in the ancient dietary and economy.

Long before the Christian Era it was said in the Orient that to drop salt was an ominous sign and ill fortune was sure to follow.

2. What are quarter days?
3. What is the driest section in the United States.

Words of Wisdom.

Evil habits soil a fine dress more than mud; good manners, by their deeds, easily set off a lowly garb.—Plautus.

Hints on Etiquette.

As a general rule, when a couple is ascending or descending stairs, the woman precedes the man. If it is dark, or there is danger of stumbling, however, the man may go first.

One-Minute Test Answers.

1. It means Sons of the Covenant, and is an association of Jews for the purpose of the moral improvement of its members.
2. In the United States quarter days are, in law, the first of January, April, July and October.
3. The southeastern part of California, and western portion of Arizona.

A Farmer's Diary

Hints of Spring

—By CALVIN A. BYERS

THERE is something in these keen frosty mornings, even before the dawn, that hints at spring. It comes not from the snowdrift on the hill, nor the whited naked tops of our maple trees, nor the layers of ice upon our gravel roads, nor the hoary etchings on our window panes.

A fragrance is in the air that I did not know last week. The morning stars twinkle with a more pleasant light. The fog that shrouds the neighboring hills lifts before the sun. And a sweet, delightful, hopeful outlook stirs my inner being—"the evidence of things not seen."

Today crows flew jubilantly down from the woodland to a bare spot in our wheat field. They cawed and flapped about as they picked up bits of gravel and blades of wheat pressed close against the soil by many snows. Jays screamed loudly from the slope and even the drab English sparrows around the straw flew more happily about.

The days are longer. I greet the sunrise now, when I come in from the morning chores. The evening work about the barn is finished many times, by early twilight. Teams of our neighborhood are working longer hours—hauling wood or manure, or plowing wherever the upper soil is thawed enough.

I cut a maple sapling that grew too near the road, and pruned the branches off. By noon sap was oozing from each wound, and the low-cut stump was moist, even to the long surface roots. It will soon be maple sytup time, I thought.

And at ten last night a tearing, ripping sound seemed to start between our house and barn and go thundering westward through the lowland meadow, until the echoes rolled among the wooded hills. This noise had scarcely died away until another rumbling roar moved eastward across our wheat field, and our neighbor's pasture, stopping only at the banks of Honey Creek.

This ripping of the heavy crust of snow is a welcome sign of spring. Beneath the crust, the earth is warming up. The colder the air above, the louder will be the report of the breaking ice.

Your Federal Income Tax

NO. 28

Deduction for Traveling Expenses.

To obtain a deduction for traveling expenses, which form an important item in the returns of many taxpayers, certain regulations must be observed. The taxpayer is required to attach to his return a statement showing the nature of business in which engaged, number of days away from home during the taxable year on account of business, total amount of expense incidental to meals and lodging, and total amount of "other expenses" incident to travel and claimed as a deduction. Among the "other expenses" are tips, provided they are reasonable in amount.

Traveling expenses are deductible only when the trip is on business. They are limited to such expenses as are reasonable and necessary in the conduct of the business and directly attributable to it.

Traveling expenses incurred in connection with a journey to another city to accept or seek employment are not deductible. Suburbanites who commute daily from their homes to their places of business are not permitted to deduct the cost of transportation, it being a personal expense.

Claims for deduction for traveling expenses must be substantiated, when required by the commissioner of internal revenue, showing in detail the amount and nature of the expenses incurred.

SWAMPS STUDIED

ELIZABETHTOWN, N. C.—(U.P.)—An old theory that numerous lakes and swamps in southeastern North Carolina were caused by falling meteorites many centuries ago is being studied by John C. McCampbell, of the University of North Carolina.

Working under a permit from the state department of conservation and development, McCampbell is concentrating his geological investigations in the 40,000-acre Bladen Lakes area.

Buy a Farm for . . . Investment

CHECK THE WANT ADS DAILY!

Good farms, close to towns, in this region of vast markets, and on or near paved or hard surfaced roads are definitely an investment proposition.

Farms in a high state of cultivation with prices near or below the cost of the improvements thereon are available to the man with money to invest, and long time loans at low rates of interest are easy to secure. Land value authorities predict a steady rise in farm land prices, some say we will have a boom.

All this points to farms as an investment. BUY A FARM NOW!

The next meeting will be held March 13 with Mrs. Hugh Ward and Mrs. J. N. Ritter as hostesses. Dr. Elisabeth Mainzer will be the guest speaker. Bridge was in play at eight tables with Mrs. Hiett winning the prize.

Two Members on Study Program

Mrs. Ted Banks, 771 Overlook road, was hostess to the Child Conservation club last night when Mrs. Robert Dunson was welcomed into membership. Roll call was answered with odd causes of fear in a child. Mrs. George Bender and Mrs. James Martin conducted the program.

They spoke on "Courage and Caution." Plans were discussed for a party for husbands to be held March 15, while the next meeting was scheduled with Mrs. Bender, 1023 Woodland road, for March 13 with Mrs. W. E. Ullom assisting. Mrs. W. Campbell and Mrs. Robert Alexander will have the program on "Your Child Is a Person."

Refreshments were served, and the table was decorated with white sweetpeas and green and white appointments.

Leaves City

In honor of her daughter, Miss Sue Shortess, above, Mrs. Harry O. Shortess, 14 South Foster street, entertained last night with a shower and farewell party. Miss Shortess will leave tomorrow morning for Hattiesburg, Miss., where she will become the bride of Lieut. Michael Self, former Mansfielder, who was employed at the Charles Hoffman company here. Miss Shortess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Shortess, was employed at Satterlee's restaurant in the Fourth street market. No date has been set for the wedding as yet. Chinese checkers and Blondie were played last night at the party.

Friends Entertain at Party Honoring Bette Penhorwood

THE Misses Jean Lodrick and Elizabeth Black entertained with a pre-nuptial party yesterday evening for the pleasure of Miss Bette Penhorwood, bride-elect of Richard R. Stander. The affair was held at the Lodrick home, 100 Blymyer avenue. The 20 guests present spent a social evening and gave the honoree a shower of kitchen gifts. At a late hour, a buffet luncheon was served from a table decorated with blue and white appointments.

Miss Penhorwood and Mr. Stander will be married at 7:30 o'clock on the evening of March 8 before the altar of St. Luke's Lutheran church. Rev. David N. Roller, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will perform the ceremony.

Miss Penhorwood, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ford, Chevy Chase road, has chosen Miss Carolyn Woltmann to be her maid-of-honor. Miss Mariann Stander, sister of the prospective bridegroom, and Miss Frances Strickler will be the bridesmaids, while Paula Ann Weir, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Weir, will be the flower girl.

Mr. Stander's best man will be Edwin Jelliff, and the ushers will include Milton Dudley of Cleveland, John Burns, Robert McCormick, and William Black. Mr. Stander is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Stander, 475 Marion avenue.

Plumbers Auxiliary Has Routine Session

Ten members of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Master Plumbers association met for a luncheon at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alex Grassick on East Fourth street. Games were played following the business session, and prizes were won by Mrs. Mabel Ricker, Mrs. William Early, Mrs. Ruth Marlow and Mrs. Frank Frietchen.

The members are planning to entertain their husbands with a dinner at 6 o'clock on the evening of March 13 in the pavilion at Prospect park. Mrs. William Overly will have the next regular meeting at her home in Ashland on March 28.

HAVE SESSION.

Members of the Willing Workers society of the Little Washington Congregational church had an all-day quilting yesterday at the home of Mrs. Otis Shadel. There were 12 present. Members will meet next Thursday with the place to be announced later.

Announcement has been received of the marriage of Miss Sarah Lee Patton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Patton of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Robert Norris Clingan, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Clingan, Vennum avenue.

The wedding was solemnized at 5 o'clock on the afternoon of Feb. 17 at the home of Mrs. James H. Cavins in Lexington, Ky., with Rev. Jesse Herrmann officiating. The couple was unattended, and the bride was attired in a navy blue ensemble with matching accessories.

The former Miss Patton attended Wesleyan college and was graduated from Ohio university at Athens, Ohio. She is a member of Alpha Beta Chi and Alpha Delta Pi, social sororities, and Alpha Psi Omega, honorary dramatic fraternity. She has been employed in Grand Rapids.

Mr. Clingan is a senior at the University of Kentucky this semester, and so he and his bride are residing in Lexington. A graduate of Mansfield Senior high school, Mr. Clingan also attended Ohio university, and he is a member of Phi Kappa Tau fraternity.

Appleseed Unit Has Session at School Thursday

It was announced that $140 was cleared on the benefit movie and program given at the Johnny Appleseed school Tuesday evening when the P. T. A. met last night at the school with E. S. Wendell, president, conducting the session. Following the brief business meeting a bandage demonstration was given by a group of Boy Scouts.

Those taking part were Jack, Thomas and Bill Daum, Henry Kempf, Charles Kenney, Richard Fenn and Earl Wendell. This was followed by a tap dance by Dick Stafford accompanied by Juanita Hillman, a reading by Ernest Pennell, and vocal selections by Bud Crum and George Knackstedt accompanied by Katherine Schaller.

Judge Stuart Cramer spoke on juvenile delinquency and the court. He attributed delinquency to lack of early home training. Bob Fox and his Boys, a seventh grade orchestra, concluded the program.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. S. G. Bushman, Mrs. William Hutzelman and Mrs. H. W. Gibbs.

ENTERTAINS 14.

Mrs. P. W. Bachenstos, 514 Marion avenue, was hostess to 14 members of the Mary-Martha Bible club yesterday. Devotions were led by Mrs. Ray Seaton and Mrs. Backenstos conducted the study hour. The next meeting will be held March 13 with Mrs. J. Leo Hartmann, 36 Stewart avenue.

Informally Speaking...

By MARIANNE

WITH the winter winds still hurling snow against our windowpanes, it's pleasant indeed to think about those folks who are basking in the southern sunshine now. . . . Mrs. Homer Miller is vacationing down in Clearwater, Fla., and evidently she has more to do than loll on the beach. . . . According to a review by Clara Griffith Gazzam in the Clearwater Sun, Mrs. Miller recently participated in a program presented by the Tuesday Music club of that city. . . . She sang the arias of Mimi and Musette from La Boheme, and, said Reviewer Gazzam, "The arias were beautifully sung by Mrs. Miller, whose clear soprano voice was heard to especial advantage in Musette's passionate appeal to her lover."

And while we're speaking of music, programs entitled "Great Hymns of the Church" will be broadcast at various times from several radio stations by the Wittenberg college choir. . . . Especially designed for the Lenten season, recordings have been made, each providing a program of 15 minutes. . . . Each presents one great hymn, telling of the author and the writing of the hymn. "Great Hymns of the Church" are sung by 44 selected Witenberg college voices under the direction of Prof. John Thomas Williams, and Lois Ann Portz of this city, Richard J. Reichard of Shelby, Mary Jane Leedy of Bellville and Robert Arnholt of Loudonville were among those singing for these seven recordings.

Burton Preston, III, attends University school in Cleveland, you know, and he is a member of the school glee club there. . . . And as a result he has been quite busy these past few weeks, because the glee club members are presenting their annual concert this evening in the school's auditorium.

VISITORS in Mansfield this week were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lantz and their children, Robert and Dixie Lou, of Amherst, who visited with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lantz and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Weatherbie. . . . An important event while they were there was the celebration of Dixie Lou's first birthday anniversary.

We're all pretty proud of the scholastic honors our Mansfield students are acquiring for themselves on their various college campuses. . . . Bette Greene is the sixth ranking junior at Otterbein college in Westerville according to the latest honor roll figures. . . . The daughter of Mrs. R. A. Greene, she is majoring in art and made a semester point average of 3.437 out of a possible 4.000. . . . Virginia Casperson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Casperson, has been named to the honor roll in the school of education at Miami university in Oxford. . . . She also is vice president of her sorority (Theta Upsilon) pledge class and was a judge in recent speech contests.

AN EXCITING letter was the one Mrs. J. Leo Hartmann received from her sister, Hallie June Weimer, this morning. . . . A former resident of this city, Hallie was married to Clarence A. Painter on Feb. 20 in Las Vegas, Nev. The bride is the sister of Clifford, Ralph and Harlan Weimer, and she visited here last summer. . . . She and her husband are planning to make their home in ElMonte, Cal. . . . Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Peppard motored to Cleveland last evening to meet their daughter, Mrs. Paul Wilmore, who arrived there by plane from her home in San Mateo, Cal. She will be joined here tomorrow by her husband, who has been in Erie, Pa., on business. Another daughter of the Peppards, Mrs. James Keyes, and her daughter, Denny, of Worthington, are here now visiting too. . . . As you probably recall, Mrs. Wilmore is the former Gretchen Peppard, and Mrs. Keyes was Eloise Peppard.

Mother Entertains at Party for Daughter

Mrs. O. M. Garver, 152 West First street, gave a surprise birthday party last night for her daughter, Mrs. Charles Eltring, Waterbury, Conn. There were 14 present and bridge was played, with prizes going to Mrs. Robert Eilenfield and Miss Beatrice Piatt.

Refreshments were served at a long table decorated with green and white appointments and centered with a birthday cake and candles. Mrs. Eltring, who has been visiting here for the past five weeks, will return to her home Monday.

Division Conducts Meeting at Courtney's

Misses Katherine and Flosse Courtney were hostesses for a meeting of Division Two of the Ladies Aid society of the United Presbyterian church last evening at their home, 242 Marion avenue. There were 11 members and one guest in attendance, and Mrs. Frank Williams conducted the business.

Devotions were read by Mrs. W. E. Shane, and the group spent the evening hemming towels for the Children's Home. Refreshments were served at a late hour. The place of the next meeting, March 27, will be announced later.

Pennsylvania Aid Has Luncheon Meet

Members of the Women's Aid to the Pennsylvania Railroad met at the Staiger tea room on Glessner avenue yesterday for a 1 o'clock luncheon with Mrs. C. R. Ladd and Mrs. A. W. Wolfe as hostesses. St. Patrick appointments were used on the table.

The meeting was in charge of Mrs. E. W. High, and Mrs. G. A. Godley was welcomed into membership. Mrs. C. R. Montgomery gave a report on relief work, and Mrs. Marjorie Comer, a guest, gave a cosmetic demonstration. The next meeting will be held March 27 at the tea room with Mrs. Franklin Haupt and Mrs. Fred Alacca as hostesses.

Plan Open House To Observe Anniversary

On the occasion of their silver anniversary Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sears, West Fourth street road, will observe open house with their two daughters, Miss Peggy Sears and Mrs. L. P. Wright, as hostesses. The affair will be held from 2 to 5 p. m. Sunday.

The couple, who was married 25 years ago March 2, will be honored at a family dinner preceding the afternoon function.

FETES RECENT BRIDE.

Ina Harry, 42 Bahl avenue, entertained Wednesday evening with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mrs. Curtis E. Beidelscheis, the former Miss Viola Finley. Prizes were won by Mrs. Gladys Perry and Miss Helen Tucker. Miss Miriam Sprang, Nashville, O., was a guest. Pink and white appointments, and a bridal centerpiece and wedding cake were used. A buffet supper was served to 12 guests.

FORM CLUB.

At the second meeting of a group of young Mansfield women the Merry Six club was formed Wednesday evening. Miss Ann White and Miss Mary Miller were the hostesses, and Miss Marge Bader was elected president. Miss Miller is secretary, and Miss Helen Fury is treasurer. Luncheon was served following the business meeting. The next session will be held March 12 at the home of Miss Fury with Miss Bader assisting.

"Pitfalls of Love"

(A Sequel to Marriage Meddlers)

By ADELE GARRISON

BIG, BLUFF Samuel Brixton gave a bellow of delight as, at Dicky's invitation, he looked in our tonneau to see the "visitor" Dicky had said was there.

"Carol!" he exclaimed. "If this isn't a piece of good luck! But whatever—however?"

His natural bewilderment vanished at the sight of her slumped figure and the hands over her eyes.

"What's the matter, little sweetheart?" he queried in the tender manner of anxious fathers the world over, and again I mentally commented upon the greatest quality in Samuel Brixton's soul, the thing which redeems much evil in him, the whole-hearted devotion he gives to his wife's children, worse than fatherless when they were mere babies, whom he legally adopted when he married their mother.

I do not think he or Ronald or Carolyn ever give a second's thought to the fact that he is not their father by blood as well as by adoption. And certainly no father in the world could be more loving or more indulgent than he has been.

Carolyn uncovered her eyes and looked up at him forlornly.

"Hello! Dad!" she said weakly and then he leaned into the tonneau, pulled her slight little figure from the car.

"Is my baby sick?" he asked, tenderly kissing her as her arms went convulsively around his neck.

"No," she answered in muffled tones, "but my head is aching fit to split, and all I want is to get to my room and lie down for a while. Mrs. Graham—"

She left the sentence unfinished, and I promptly filled it in, presenting the explanation upon which we had agreed before our arrival.

"I'm sure she isn't really ill," I said, "but she has a severe headache, and the motor journey has upset her, acute car sickness—"

I hurried over the details, finished upon a cautionary—and reassuring—note

"But I am sure if she can have absolute rest and quiet for a little while, she will need nothing else."

"She shall have nothing else but," he declared. "I'll carry you up to your room now."

Carolyn wriggled out of his arms, slid to the ground, but kept her grip upon his arm, and put her face against his shoulder.

"No, you mustn't carry me," she said. "I can walk, and I'd rather, really. But Dad—" she hesitated.

"Yes, darling," he prompted.

"Until my head gets better you won't let Mums ask me any questions about—the quarrel between Ronald and Marion, will you? I feel as if I'd pump out of my skin if anybody put a single question to me."

He stroked her hair fondly.

"Just leave that to your old Dad, Baby," he said. "But here comes your mother now. Don't worry! I'll back you up."

"She'll want to get a doctor and fuss over me," Carolyn murmured. "And all I want to do is rest and sleep."

The Anxious Parent

"Hush! I'll fix it," he reiterated, and then Helena Brixton, tall, slender, blonde, so finished a product of an expert beautician that she looked years younger than her childhood companion, Lillian, until you saw here eyes, came gracefully down the steps, accelerating her pace as she caught sight of her daughter.

"Carol!" she exclaimed anxiously even as her husband had done, then with the evident realization that her child was in no immediate danger of death, gave Dicky and me a cordial graceful greeting before turning back to her daughter.

"What's the matter, child?" she asked, and I gave her the explanation I had just given her husband. She was all maternal solicitude in a moment.

"But darling!" she said. "We must have a doctor at once. And take her up to my room, Sam. It's larger. And do come in, Madge and Dicky, and make yourselves at home. I'll be with you as soon as I've seen to my child."

Dainty Dishes For Afternoon Tea Party

By BETSY NEWMAN

Do you like to gather together two, three, four or more congenial pals for an afternoon tea at your home? I do, so I am giving you some muffin recipes and a cake that will make your tea more than ever a hit with the girls.

Today's Menu.

Hot Muffins Jam
Cake Tea Salted Nuts Mints

Cheese Puffs.

1 cup shortening
2 cups boiling water
1 cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon cayenne
1 cup grated American cheese
4 eggs

Heat shortening and water to boiling point. Sift flour, baking powder, salt and cayenne together and pour into liquid mixture. Stir vigorously until mixture clings together in mass and leaves sides of pan, then beat in cheese and cool to lukewarm. Drop in unbeaten eggs one at a time, beating after each addition until mixture is smooth. Drop by teaspoonfuls on to greased baking sheet and bake in modern oven (375 degrees F.) 35 minutes.

* * *

Pineapple Feather Cake.

½ cup shortening
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 egg yolk
1½ cups sugar
4 cups sifted cake flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
¾ cup canned unsweetened pineapple juice
¼ cup water
4 egg whites

Combine shortening, salt, lemon rind and egg yolk and blend well; add sugar gradually, creaming until light and fluffy. Sift flour and baking powder together and add alternately with combined pineapple juice and water, to creamed mixture. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake in 2 greased layer cake pans in moderate (350 degrees F.) oven for 30 minutes. Frost with Pineapple Feather Frosting.

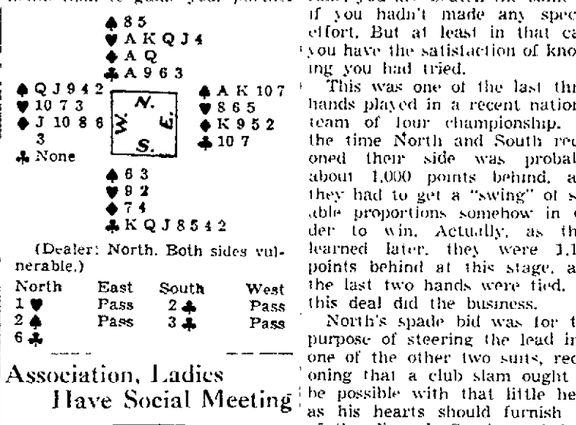
BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By Shepard Barclay

"The Authority on Authorities"

USE A CHANGE OF PACE

Be dependable, but not too dependable; Let your partner trust you in all things which are absolutely necessary as a rule. But in certain situations, it is more important to misguide the opponents than to guide your partner aright. This is especially true if you are playing in a tournament and you reckon your side is behind, with only a few hands to go. Then you must try for a "swing." If it works, you may pull the chestnuts out of the fire. If it fails, you are beaten the same as if you hadn't made any special effort. But at least in that case you have the satisfaction of knowing you had tried.



(Dealer: North. Both sides vulnerable.)

North	East	South	West
1 ♥	Pass	2 ♣	Pass
2 ♠	Pass	3 ♣	Pass

This was one of the last three hands played in a recent national team of four championship. At the time North and South reckoned their side was probably about 1,000 points behind, and they had to get a "swing" of sizable proportions somehow in order to win. Actually, as they learned later, they were 1,190 points behind at this stage, and the last two hands were tied. So this deal did the business.

North's spade bid was for the purpose of steering the lead into one of the other two suits, reckoning that a club slam ought to be possible with that little help, as his hearts should furnish all of the discards South needed. It worked like a charm. West led his diamond J and South counted 13 tricks without taking a finesse. The pair scored 120 for tricks, 20 for the extra trick, 500 for game bonus and 750 for slam premium, a total of 1,390.

At the other table, the hostile team also reached 6-Clubs, but was set one trick by a spade lead, for a score of 100. Hence the total swing was 1,490 points, and the team won the match by exactly 300, due to this well-placed lead-misdirecting bid by North.

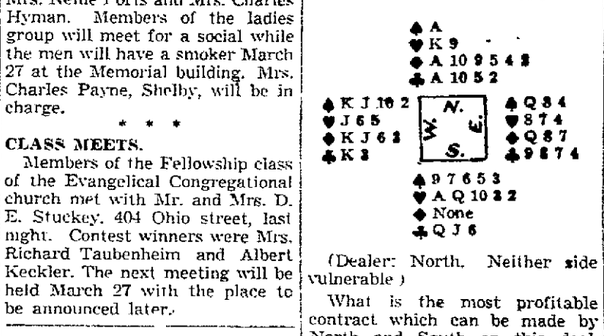
Tomorrow's Problem.



(Dealer: North. Neither side vulnerable.)

What is the most profitable contract which can be made by North and South on this deal, and how would you recommend bidding it?

Association, Ladies Have Social Meeting

The Ladies of the 37th Division, A. E. F., and the Veterans association met last night in the Memorial building for a routine session. Plans were made during the business session for a rummage sale in March, and a buffet supper was served from a table decorated with red, white and blue appointments.

Fred Elder and Clyde Meyer gave an illustrated talk on "Famous Men." The subjects for the talk were members of the association. The committee in charge was Mrs. Elder, Mrs. Meyer, Mrs. Albert Allen, Mrs. Herman Wolf, Mrs. Nellie Ports and Mrs. Charles Hyman. Members of the ladies group will meet for a social while the men will have a smoker March 27 at the Memorial building. Mrs. Charles Payne, Shelby, will be in charge.

CLASS MEETS.

Members of the Fellowship class of the Evangelical Congregational church met with Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Stuckey, 404 Ohio street, last night. Contest winners were Mrs. Richard Taubenheim and Albert Keckler. The next meeting will be held March 27 with the place to be announced later.

Lenten Reminder

Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the Lord.—Psalm 4:5.

HOROSCOPE

For Saturday, March 1.

Very definite and enduring progress may be predicted from the interesting aspects of major planets. This sound and steady growth may be inspired by some surprising or unusual set of circumstances, speedily developed, but calling for decisive action. There may be dramatic moves in such connection although substantial and persistent effort is needed to give firm foundation to whatever brilliant or spectacular plan is involved. The mind and energies are keyed to high creative urges although sound and practical.

If It Is Your Birthday.

Those whose birthday it is may be prepared for a year in which the sound, basic and stable may develop aspects of a dramatic, sudden and surprising swing. Business as well as finances, property, and other real possessions as well as labor, invention and speculative enterprises are under sign of swift or sensational developments. Steady and persistent work may have unlooked for returns. Elders, particularly women, seem influential in this, and an element of romance and adventure are not wanting despite trivial anxieties. Opportunity may incite to change of place and plans.

A child born on this day should be studious, earnest and responsible although having many extraordinary talents, skills and inventive ingenuity. It will also have tender and humane qualities, and enjoy a happy life.

Lent, Easter Subjects For Study Program

Mrs. Howard Frey presented a paper on Lent last evening during a meeting of L'Etude club at the home of Mrs. Richard Uhl on the Wooster road. She also told of the meaning of Easter in America and Europe.

Contests were played following the business session, which was in charge of Mrs. John Grohol. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Frey and Mrs. Grohol, and luncheon was served from a table decorated with patriotic appointments. Mrs. Forrest Wright will entertain the group on March 13 at her home on Helen avenue.

Fugitive on a Dude Ranch + +

By Stephen Payne

(Copyright, 1941)

CHAPTER XXII

Nancy slipped inside and closed the door. In another moment she and the girl with whom she had changed places were whispering together, the words flowing fast and free. Some four minutes later, Nancy, as lovely and unperturbed as a mountain columbine, walked back to the cookhouse and reported to Sheriff Crowder.

"It's all hunky. Miss Farnsworth'll be glad to see you imme—right off—What's yet to be done, Ike?"

Ike Skittles did not answer until the sheriff, leading his saddle horse, had plodded over to Cabin Number One and vanished inside it. Then the venerable cook looked Nancy straight in her eyes.

"I still ain't askin' you the why nor the wherefore, Bobbie, even though I'm plumb burnt up with cur'osity worse'n any antelope had. But I reckon Don Sturgis, whoever the devil he is, is still plumb safe. Am I right?"

Nancy nodded. "Thanks so much, Ike, for holding your tongue." And forthwith she blew Ike a kiss from the tips of her pretty fingers.

"Wal, blister my fetlocks!" beamed Ike. "Let's get the grub on for the dadjohned second breakfast, Bobbie. We're late 'nuff now."

At Cabin Number One Roberta Rowland said to Sheriff Crowder, "But I ain't got—I haven't yet received the letter from Mr. Waller with the details you want... I'll phone you or send some message when I get it. There's no sense in you making a trip out here unless—"

"'Less I can get the dope when I get here, Miss Farnsworth . . . Say, even though you ain't heard yet from Waller—he your Uncle's secretary?—you might know who he wants me to arrest. This Sturgis—you know him a-tall?"

"Sorry, sheriff, that I can't help you . . . But I'm awful glad to have met you"

"Me, too! Yes sir, I sure am glad to ha' had a visit with a real honest-to-gosh swelligant society gal for oncet . . . Wal, goodbye."

Cinders Malloy Sturgis, sawing wood in the yard, paused to watch Crowder ride across the Jim Creek bridge and vanish among the pines. That guy wore a sheriff's star. What business could he have possibly had with Marcia Farnsworth? Was it something Cinders should report to old Bill? . . . Oh, well, the sheriff's business couldn't have been important. Nothing of concern to Cinders Malloy Sturgis!

The guests had breakfast, and Flash Taylor had departed with most of them, when at last Kirk Maxwell made ready to interview Miss Marcia Louise Farnsworth. Present at the interview were the Perriwells, old Sol and Tony, Barclay and Maxwell. Wild horses could not have kept away old Sol, who wanted a picture of himself standing beside the heiress.

"Maxwell, you get a good 'un and send it to your papers with a caption like this: 'Thomas David Perriwell, familiarly known as old Sol, ye jovial host at the famous T Slash Dude Ranch, caught by the cameraman at the Lodge of the T Slash, while relating an anecdote to his charming guest, Miss Marcia Louise Farnsworth'."

The photograph had been taken when Cinders strode in with an armload of firewood and then seemed to think it necessary he should remove the ashes from the fireplace.

Miss Farnsworth, Cinders thought, was strangely ill at ease. Perhaps after all she wasn't such a spoiled, pleasure-seeking butterfly as he had believed. Having been used to the services of a maid all her life, she evidently did not know how properly to put on powder and rouge. Otherwise she had gotten herself up pretty well in a new riding outfit. Still, didn't the girl know all that jewelry she seemed to be so hell-bent on wearing was out of place on a ranch?

Tony—damn the fish-mouthed, chinless goof—was right on hand this morning. But Cinders assured himself the popeyed fortune hunter was so obvious he wouldn't get to first base with "Old Bill's niece"

Kirk Maxwell flourished a large notebook and a sharp pencil. "Now don't be nervous, Miss Farnsworth. Since you've doubtless been interviewed before, my article will concern itself primarily with your visit to the T Slash Dude Ranch"

"That's jim-dandy," declared old Sol. "I'd like to have you tell how you happened to pick my ranch"

Maxwell frowned. "I'm doing this interview, Sol. However, I can organize my material later. Miss Farnsworth, I've no objection to your answering Mr Perriwell's question."

Roberta pursed her lips as if considering this in a wise and thoughtful vein She was indeed thoughtful. Nancy had told her to confine herself to "Yes" and "No" and "Perhaps." Yet none of these just now seemed appropriate Suddenly she recalled a stock answer which had served her well in the past.

"I—I don't know."

"Drat it!" old Sol clicked.

Cinders glanced around from the fireplace. Barclay seemed amused, although a fellow could not well read that sharp-razored face. Maxwell acted a bit nonplused. However he was scribbling in his notebook. In a moment he read:

"After a careful and thorough consideration of dude ranches in the West, particularly those in Wyoming, Miss Farnsworth, following a giddy whirl in Gotham society, selected the T Slash for its remote beauty, its true old Western hospitality and its soothing isolation and quietness."

Roberta almost forgot her role. "Following what?" she inquired blankly.

"He throws a wicked pen," said old Sol, winking at Tony.

"A giddy whirl in Gotham society, my dear young lady," said Maxwell. "By the way, when did your family return from your cruise"

Roberta summoned her resources. "It's a secret."

"A secret!" Maxwell dropped his pencil to rub him hands together. "That means a scoop for the 'All-Seeing Eye.' 'Miss Marcia Louise Farnsworth returned to America secretly'" He picked up the pencil, "You'll give me the details, please?"

"No, sir. You don't get 'em from me."

"Better and better!" ejaculated Maxwell. He was enjoying himself. Not so Roberta, who said crossly, "Go on with the interview. I don't want to waste the whole morning."

Cinders slowly put another shovelful of ashes into the old pail he had found.

"Miss Farnsworth," Maxwell said, looking up from his notes, "getting back to the ranch—my interview was originally to concern itself with your vacation on a dude ranch—how do you think the Wyoming mountains compare with the Andes?"

"Andes?" said Roberta "Eumn? I don't remember them. I saw so darn—so many mountains while we was—were away"

Maxwell shouted. "This is great! One American tourist returns so unimpressed by the grandeur of the Andes she can't even remember them."

Roberta gave him a level look. "You about finished?"

"I should like to ask a hundred questions, Miss Farnsworth, but I won't now Just one more. When are you returning home?"

Roberta considered the question, arched her left eyebrow and smiled her most tantalizing smile 'Uh, that depends," dreamily. "Maybe never."

Cinders, who was still prolonging the removal of the ashes from the fireplace, dropped his shovel with a loud clatter. Otherwise there was silence in the Lodge until Maxwell gasped "'Maybe never" How shall I interpret that statement, dear lady?"

"Anyway you please, Mr. Maxwell . . . Tony, you've got our horses saddled?"

Tony did not have horses saddled. Tony had been wondering if he dared to ask this girl to ride with him again. She had now made the situation easy for him.

He blurted, "I'll have 'em in a jiffy," and hurried out.

Cinders also went out, his mind whirling Great grief, he'd have to watch that girl! She was getting some queer notions. It looked as if she just made a dead set at Tony, too

Maxwell was writing furiously. Old Sol stepped up behind the interviewer and read over his shoulder:

"We quote Miss Farnsworth as saying she may never return either to the palatial estate of her parents on the Hudson or to the palatial estate of her parents on the Hudson or to the magnificent family home in Philadelphia. We We suspect a romance has already blossomed in this land of enchantment. Would it not astound her family and friends to learn that this future society belle has fallen head over heels in love with one of the stalwart sons of the West?"

Maxwell turned a page, looked up and said with pointed emphasis, "I'll finish this in my cabin where I'll have more privacy."

The rebuke slid off old Sol as butter off a hot dish. However, a moment later that worthy discovered that he had been left alone in the room with the ranch buyer.

"You want to go look at them cows I had moved out to Eagle Buttes' pasture, Mr. Barclay?"

"I'd rather loaf and rest today, Sol. I'll just talk with the fellows around here and sort of make a tour of inspection You don't need to entertain me, Sol."

"Er-hum? About the place, Mr. Barclay. Kinda like it?"

"We-el, yes and no I'm still waiting to hear from my associate in Montana. I may drive to Jimtown to see if there's any news from him. Be glad to bring out the ranch mail and any supplies you need."

Barclay's tour of inspection took him up the valley a short distance and thence behind the row of new guest cabins. Nancy, a white cap covering her tawny curls, armed with clean linen, a broom, a dustpan and a mop, was just entering Cabin No 1.

A preliminary survey of the immediate vicinity having disclosed no one else about, Smoothie Dick Barclay allowed his features to relax in a thin-lipped smile. He stole around the corner of the cabin, stepped softly inside and closed the door.

"Our Beauty Soap"—

say Lovely Brides of New Camay!

Mrs. F. H. Snyder, Placerville, Calif. "I'm just thrilled by new Camay's wonderful mildness," says Mrs. Snyder. "And what a wonderful new fragrance. I just loved it from the very first moment!"

Mrs. Albert L. Valery, New Rochelle, N. Y. "I wouldn't use any other beauty soap," says Mrs. Valery. "This new Camay is just my idea of what a soap should be. It's so wonderfully mild my skin feels smooth and soft and refreshed after I've washed it with Camay. I wouldn't ask for a soap milder than new Camay."

Great New Improvement in Beauty Soaps Thrills Women Everywhere!

Mrs. F. M. Smith, Jr., Jackson Heights, L. I. "I don't know if anyone has ever told you," says Mrs. Smith, "but new Camay is simply marvelous. It gives so much lather so easily and quickly it's astonishing. And of course I love Camay's wonderful mildness!"

EVERY WOMAN who seeks love and happiness wants a lovelier skin. That's why not only brides but women everywhere have given new Camay such a tremendous welcome!

Yes, women see in Camay a real help in their search for loveliness. For now this wonderful new Camay has certain definite advantages over other leading beauty soaps.

We proved these advantages by tests against 6 of the best-selling toilet soaps we could find. Proved Camay was milder than any of them... gave more abundant lather in a short time.

You know how important mildness is to a lovely woman's delicate skin! Well this new Camay is so mild that it seems to soothe as it cleanses! Get 3 cakes of Camay from your dealer, today. Try its gentle cleansing on your own skin. You'll be delighted!
